

either the county where * * * the property * * * which is the subject of such contract is located at the time of commencement of such action or in the county where such association has its principal office, according to its articles of incorporation.

(6) Where any contract exists between an association and a member, any person who, with knowledge or notice of the existence of the contract, induces or attempts to induce or aids in the breach thereof by any means, shall be liable to the aggrieved party for damages on account of such interference with said contract and shall also be subject to an injunction to prevent the interference or further interference therewith.

(7) The legislature intends that subsection (5) of this section shall protect property interests of an association under those contracts to sell to the association which are specifically authorized by subsection (2) of this section. The legislature intends that subsection (6) of this section shall prevent wrongful interference with any contract between an association and its member, no matter whether said contract is such a contract to sell to the association or is one of agency or otherwise, and regardless of whether said contract is specifically authorized by subsection (2) of this section or not, and irrespective of whether the interference is with the rights of the association or of the member under said contract.

SECTION 2. Subsection (3) of section 185.08 of the statutes is renumbered to be section 185.081.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 182.

AN ACT to create subsection (7) of section 20.10 and section 33.05 of the statutes, relating to sale of laws in pamphlet form and of election supplies, and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 20.10 and a new section is added to the statutes to read: (20.10) (7) On July 1, 1925, five thousand dollars to be used as a revolving appropriation for the execution and functions prescribed by section 33.05. All moneys received by the superintendent of public property from the sale of such law pamphlets and election supplies shall be paid within one week into the general fund, and are re-appropriated for the purposes named in said section.

33.05 (1) The superintendent of public property shall distribute in pamphlet form such laws as may be required to meet the public demand, including the constitution and additional copies of election laws; also blank nomination papers and other election blanks and supplies, not otherwise provided for, for use of candidates, committees, and by city and county clerks. Such laws, blanks and supplies shall be sold by said superintendent at cost, plus fifteen per cent, and necessary postage or other transportation charges.

(2) The secretary of state, attorney-general and superintendent of public property, or a majority of them, shall constitute a committee to determine what law pamphlets, blanks and other election supplies shall be so printed, or purchased, and offered for sale. The secretary of state, as secretary of such committee, shall keep a record of its proceedings, make all necessary requisitions and furnish copy for such laws and blanks.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
