CHAPTER 316.

AN ACT to create section 40.025 of the statutes, relating to attachment to other districts of territory of dissolved school districts.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 40.025 (1) Whenever that portion of a school district in any town which contains the schoolhouse is annexed to a city or village, the county superintendent of schools shall file with the town board a recommendation for the attachment of the remnant of such district to some other district or districts in the town. A hearing upon such matter shall be afforded by the town board in accordance with section 40.04.

(2) After such hearing the board shall make such order for the attachment of the remnant of such district to such other district or districts in the town as it may deem proper and by the same order shall dissolve the former district. Such order shall be deemed sufficient if it describes the limits of the territory to be annexed to each district or districts.

(3) If the former district was joint and the portion thereof not annexed to such city or village is located in two or more towns the order of attachment and dissolution shall be made by joint order of the town boards of said towns. If such towns are located in different counties the order of the town boards relative to the attachment of such territory shall be on the recommendation of the county superintendents of the different counties.

(4) All of the assets of any district dissolved pursuant to this section shall become the property of the district or districts to which the remnant of the district dissolved is attached in proportion to the assessed valuation of the portion of such dissolved district attached to each of the said districts.

(5) In case any ten electors of the town or towns including such district or districts feel aggrieved by the order of the town board or boards, they may within thirty days from the date of the order, appeal therefrom to the state superintendent whose decision shall be final.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
