CHAPTER 157.

AN ACT to permanently mark the Michigan-Wisconsin boundary and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A temporary commission is hereby created to act jointly with a similar commission of the state of Michigan to permanently mark the Michigan-Wisconsin boundary in conformity with the decision of the United States supreme court in the Michigan-Wisconsin boundary case. Said commission shall consist of the state chief engineer, but if the state of Michigan shall appoint a commission of three, the governor shall appoint two additional members.

SECTION 2. There is appropriated from the general fund to the commission to mark the Michigan-Wisconsin boundary a sum sufficient to pay one-half of the cost of permanently marking said boundary.

SECTION 3. A copy of this act shall be transmitted by the secretary of state to the governor of Michigan and to each house of its legislature, as an expression of the desire of the state of Wisconsin to co-operate with the state of Michigan in this undertaking.

SECTION 4. Upon the completion of the work of said joint commission, a copy of its report setting forth the boundary, as marked, and describing the monuments and the locations thereof by metes and bounds, and attested by the affidavit of each member of the commission, or by a majority of them, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state of the state of Wisconsin, who shall preserve the same as a permanent record of the boundary so marked and established.

Section 5. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
