The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections (17) and (18) of section 136.01 of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. Two new subsections are added to section 136.01 of the statutes to be numbered and to read: (136.01) (17) The board may, upon complaint in writing, duly signed and verified by the complainant, and upon not less than ten days' notice to the real estate broker or salesman, suspend any real estate broker's or salesman's license if it has reason to believe, and may revoke such license if it finds, after a hearing as provided in subsection (18), that the holder of such license has made a material misstatement in the application for such license; or has been guilty of fraud or fraudulent practices; or, has demonstrated untrustworthiness or incompetency to act as a real estate broker in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public; or has violated any provisions of this section. If a broker be a company it shall be sufficient cause for the suspension or revocation of a broker's license that any officer, director or trustee of the company, or any member in case of a partnership, has been guilty of any act or omission which would be cause for refusing a broker's license to such person as an individual. A copy of the complaint, together with notice of suspension of the license if ordered by the board, shall forthwith be served personally or by mail upon the real estate broker or salesman complained against, and in case the complaint is against a salesman a copy of the complaint and notice shall also be served upon the broker for whom he is acting.

(18) No order revoking a license shall be made until after a public hearing or hearings held before the board, or before any member thereof, or before any duly authorized employe whose report the board shall have adopted. Such hearing or hearings shall be held in the county wherein the real estate broker complained of or whose salesman is complained of has his place of business, and shall not be held until at least ten days after service of the copy of the complaint as required in subsection (17). In the event that said broker or salesman is a nonresident, such hearing shall be held at such place as may be designated by the board.
