The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 57.01 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to the statutes to be numbered and to read: 57.01 (1) Whenever any adult is convicted of a felony, convictions under sections 340.02, 340.03, 340.04, 340.05, 340.06, 340.07, 340.09, 340.39, 340.40, 340.56, 343.09, 343.121, 343.122, 351.16, 351.30 excepted, and it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the character of the defendant and the circumstances of the case indicate that he is not likely again to commit crime, and that the public good does not require that he shall suffer the penalty provided by law, said court may, except as otherwise provided for by law, by order suspend the judgment or stay the execution thereof and place the defendant on probation, stating therein the reasons for the order, which shall be made a part of the record, and may impose as a condition of making the order or of continuing the same in effect that the defendant shall make restitution or pay the costs of prosecution, or do both.

(2) Such adult may be returned to such court on the original charge for sentence, at any time within such period of probation; and upon the expiration of such period he may be sentenced, discharged, or continued under probation for an additional period to be then fixed by the court, subject to like return, discharge, sentence, or further probation thereafter.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
