The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraph 1 of section 1 and section 12 of chapter 450 of the laws of 1921 are amended to read: (Chapter 450, laws of 1921) (Section 1) 1. The county court of the county of Marquette shall have cognizance of and jurisdiction to hear, try and determine, all actions and proceedings at law wherein the amount of debt, damages, penalty or forfeiture shall not exceed the sum of * * * two thousand dollars; actions to recover the possession of personal property with damages for the unlawful taking or detention thereof, wherein the value of the property claimed shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, and all charges for offenses arising within said county and which are not punishable by commitment to the state prison; and the judge of said county court shall have power to sentence and commit all persons convicted of any offense of which said court has jurisdiction.

SECTION 12. The county judge of * * * Marquette county * * * shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, for performing the duties of his office, * * * to be paid out of the county treasury in equal monthly installments at the end of each month. In addition he shall be paid out of the county treasury fifty dollars per month for the performance of the additional duties imposed through the increase in his civil jurisdiction to two thousand dollars.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 8, 1931.

No. 736, A.]   [Published June 9, 1931.

CHAPTER 200.

AN ACT to create subsection (8) of section 59.23 of the statutes, relating to duties and powers of sheriffs in counties having a population of five hundred thousand or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 59.23 of the statutes to read: (59.23) (8) In counties having a population of five hundred thousand or more, the sheriff is authorized to destroy all sheriff's dockets, daily jail records and cash books dated prior to 1901. It shall be the duty of the sheriff to hereafter retain and safely keep all such records for a period of thirty years, after which the same may be destroyed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 8, 1931.

No. 787, A.] [Published June 9, 1931.

CHAPTER 201.

AN ACT to create section 29.345 of the statutes, relating to description of certain bays and harbors.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 29.345 (1) Whenever the hereinafter named bays and harbors are mentioned in this chapter, the following description for the same shall apply:

(a) That body of water known as Moonlight bay lying north and west of a line commencing at the most northeast point in section fifteen, township thirty north, range twenty-eight east, and running in a straight line northeasterly to the most southerly point in section fourteen, same township and range.

(b) That body of water known as Jackson harbor lying south and west of a line commencing at the most northerly point in section twenty-seven, township thirty-four north, range thirty east, and running in a straight line northwesterly to the most easterly point in the northeast quarter of section twenty-eight, same township and range.

(c) That body of water known as Bailey's harbor lying north of a line commencing at the most southerly point in section twenty-one, township thirty north, range twenty-eight east, and running in a straight line westerly to the south line of section twenty, same township and range.

(d) That body of water known as Washington harbor lying north of a line commencing at the water's edge on the north line of section twenty-six, township thirty-four north, range twenty-nine east, and running in a straight line easterly to the water's edge on north line of section twenty-five, same township and range.