CHAPTER 78.

AN ACT to amend section 289.43 of the statutes, relating to innkeepers' liens, and ex-service men's exemptions therefrom. The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 289.43 of the statutes is amended to read: 289.43 Every innkeeper, hotel keeper, and every keeper of a boarding house or lodging house, whether individual, copartnership, or corporation, shall have a lien upon and may retain the possession of all the baggage and other effects brought into his inn, hotel, boarding house, or lodging house by any guest, boarder, or lodger, whether the same is the individual property of such guest, boarder, or lodger, or under his control, or the property of any other person for whose board, lodging, or other accommodation the person contracting for such board and lodging is liable, for the proper charges owing such innkeeper, hotel keeper, or keeper of a boarding house or lodging house for any board, lodging or other accommodation furnished to or for such guest, boarder, or lodger, and for all money paid or advanced to any such guest, boarder, or lodger, not exceeding the sum of fifty dollars, and for such extras as are furnished at the written request signed by such guest, boarder, or lodger, until the amount of such charges is paid, and any execution or attachment levied upon any such baggage or effects shall be subject to such innkeepers' lien and the costs of satisfying it. Provided, however, that no lien shall be placed upon any property mentioned in this section for any bill or account which is chargeable against any person mentioned herein for malt, spirituous, ardent, or intoxicating liquors furnished to any of the aforesaid persons. Provided further, that no lien shall be placed upon the papers of any discharged soldier, sailor or marine that are derived from and evidence of military or naval service or adjusted compensation certificate, compensation, pension, citation medal or badge. Every keeper of a garage, livery or boarding stable, and every person pasturing or keeping any horses, carriages, automobiles, harness, mules, cattle, or stock shall have a lien upon and may retain the possession of any such horses, carriages, automobiles, harness, mules, cattle or stock for the amount which may be due him for the keeping, supporting, and care thereof until such amount is paid; provided, however, that no keeper of any garage, livery or boarding stable shall exercise the aforesaid lien upon any automobile unless there shall be posted in some conspicuous place a card, stating the charges for storing the aforesaid automobile, the same to be easily read at a distance of fifteen feet by any person entering the aforesaid garage by entrances. Any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished upon conviction thereof by a fine of not less than five dollars or more than twenty-five dollars.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
