CHAPTER 11.

AN ACT to create sections 278.101, 278.102, 278.103, 278.104 and 278.105 of the statutes, relating to foreclosure of mortgages by action.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Five new sections are added to the statutes to read: 278.101 EXISTENCE OF EMERGENCY. It is declared that the provisions of sections 278.102, 278.103, 278.104 and 278.105 of this act are made necessary by a public emergency growing out of the present financial and economic conditions, gravely impairing the market for real estate, and endangering agriculture, the basic industry of the state, and threatening the destruction of the population's means of shelter, and resulting in numerous foreclosures of real estate mortgages throughout the state, and that the results of such foreclosures upon farms and homesteads are so far reaching that they create an emergency, which condition seriously affects so many of our citizens as to imperil the public welfare, health and morals, and the peace and security of the people of the state. This act is declared to be temporary and unless earlier repealed, will terminate in its effect in accordance with the dates as hereinafter provided.

278.102 EMERGENCY EXTENSION OF REDEMPTION PERIOD. (1) In any such farm or homestead foreclosure action commenced prior to March 1, 1935, in which judgment of foreclosure and sale has not been entered at the time this section takes effect, the one year period specified in section 278.10 may be extended as hereinafter provided. The court before which any such action is pend-
