CHAPTER 269.

AN ACT to amend subsection (8) of section 72.11 of the statutes, relating to evidence of value of securities for inheritance tax purposes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (8) of section 72.11 of the statutes is amended to read: (72.11) (8) Whenever any decedent shall have left any stocks, bonds or other securities issued by any corporation, joint stock company, partnership, or association, domestic or foreign, owning property or doing business in this state, or any interest therein, or in the assets thereof, all inventories, books, papers, income tax returns and records thereof shall be competent evidence in any court, and shall be accessible to the executor or administrator of the estate of such decedent, the appraisers, public administrator, inheritance tax counsel, or other person designated by the court, for the purpose of ascertaining the true value of such stocks, bonds, securities or other interests, under such conditions and limitations as the court may prescribe; and the court may order the production in court of any such inventories, books, papers and records, and may require the attendance and examination in court of any officer or employe of any such corporations, joint stock company, partnership or association.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 16, 1933.
