CHAPTER 406.

AN ACT to amend section 14.72 of the statutes and section 1 of chapter 342, laws of 1933, relating to the emergency board and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14.72 of the statutes is amended to read: 14.72 There is constituted an emergency board to be composed of the governor, who shall be the chairman of the board, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly finance committee. The legislative members shall be paid a per diem of ten dollars for each day actually devoted to the discharge of the duties of the board or of any special duties performed at the request of the governor, except while the legislature is in session, * * * and shall be reimbursed their actual and necessary expenses, from the appropriation made in section 20.74. Regular meetings shall be held quarterly, except during quarters in which no requests for allotments are filed with the governor, and special meetings shall be held upon call of the governor. The board may employ such assistants as it may deem necessary and fix their compensation, on the same basis as employees of the executive department.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of chapter 342, laws of 1933, is amended to read: (Chapter 342, laws of 1933) Section 1. There is appropriated from the general fund to the emergency board * * * not to exceed forty thousand dollars * * * for the performance of the duties of committees which may be constituted by the governor or by the emergency board for cooperation with federal authorities under acts passed in the present session of congress for agricultural relief, unemployment relief, emergency public works construction, reforestation and flood control, and other measures to end the depression, and also of the committees appointed by the governor to investigate the problem of increasing dairy prices and to survey the educational system of the state. The appropriation herein made shall be available for the payment of the actual and necessary expenses of the members of such committees, the salaries and expenses of persons employed by them, and all other necessary expenses of such committees. No persons shall be employed by such committees except upon approval of the emergency board which shall also fix their compensations and generally supervise the performance of their duties.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
