

this state for other crimes which he may be charged with having committed here, as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

364.27 INTERPRETATION. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

SECTION 3. A new section is created to read:

292.46 HABEAS CORPUS NOT AVAILABLE TO PRISONERS PASSING THROUGH THIS STATE. The officers of all other states, territories and countries are given the right to hold and convey all persons in their custody and charged with or convicted of crime into and through the state of Wisconsin. It shall be a sufficient answer to a writ of habeas corpus sued out in this state by any such person so in custody that the officer holds him in custody by authority of a warrant or a commitment of such other state, territory or country, a copy of which warrant or commitment shall be attached to the answer of such officer.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 22, 1933.

No. 73, A.]

[Published March 25, 1933.

CHAPTER 41.

AN ACT to amend section 256.17 of the statutes, relating to legal holidays.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 256.17 of the statutes is amended to read: 256.17 The first day of January, the twenty-second day of February, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the twelfth day of October (which shall be known as "Landing Day" in commemoration of the landing of Columbus), the eleventh day of November, the twenty-fifth day of December, the day appointed by the governor as Labor day and by the governor or the president of the United States as a day of public thanksgiving in each year, the day of holding the September primary election, and the day of holding the general election in November, are legal holidays. In every city of the first class the day of holding any municipal election is a legal holiday, and in every such city the afternoon of each day upon which a primary election is held for the nomination of candidates for city offices, is a half holiday. Whenever any of said days shall fall on Sunday the succeeding Monday shall be the legal holiday.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1933.

No. 680, A.]

[Published March 25, 1933.

CHAPTER 42.

AN ACT to extend the date for payment of taxes by a local treasurer to the county treasurer to April 10, 1933.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The last date for the payment of taxes to the town, city and village treasurers and the return of warrants and tax rolls by such treasurers to county treasurers and the payment of the sums directed to be paid to such county treasurers as provided by subsections (1) and (3) of section 70.68 and subsection (1) of section 74.15 is extended to April 10, 1933.

SECTION 2. It is declared that the provisions of this act are made necessary by the present economic emergency, resulting in the closing of all banks, and the consequent inability of citizens to pay taxes.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 24, 1933.

No. 696, A.]

[Published March 25, 1933.

CHAPTER 43.

AN ACT to create paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of section 5.27, created by chapter 27, Laws 1933, and to re-enact paragraph (c) of subsection (8) of section 5.26, 1931, Wisconsin statutes, relating to town primaries in counties of two hundred fifty thousand population or over.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows: