

Resolved, That properly attested copies of this resolution shall be transmitted to both houses of the legislature of the four states named herein with the request that they communicate their responses to the special committee of this legislature appointed hereunder, which shall assume responsibility for completing arrangements, in conjunction with the committees named by the legislatures of the neighboring states, for the conference herein suggested.

---

[Jt. Res. No. 57, A.]

[Deposited Feb. 23, 1933.]

No. 31, 1933.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to the attempted assassination of President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt.

WHEREAS, An assassin yesterday evening sought to kill President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, and while fortunately he did not hit the President-elect, shot five other persons, among them Mayor Cermak of Chicago, who was very critically injured; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That the legislature of Wisconsin hereby expresses its sympathy to Mayor Cermak and the four others who were injured in this dastardly attempt to assassinate the President-elect and the gratification of all the people of this state that the President-elect escaped injury and their concern that every precaution be taken to prevent any similar occurrence in the future. Be it further

Resolved, That properly attested copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President-elect and Mayor Cermak.

---

[Jt. Res. No. 39, S.]

[Deposited Feb. 24, 1933.]

No. 32, 1933.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to prosecution, by the state, of actions in the federal courts to protect the markets for cattle and dairy products of this state.

WHEREAS, The constitution of the United States provides that: "no state shall, without the consent of the Congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws"; and

WHEREAS, Certain states have promulgated rules and regulations under the guise of inspection laws with the apparent purpose and result of barring Wisconsin cattle, milk and other products, and other states are about to follow their example; and

WHEREAS, The state of New York, in particular, has, by rule of its Department of Agriculture and Markets, stopped the shipping of Wisconsin cattle into that state, causing a loss to dairy-men of this state of from four to five thousand dollars per day; and

WHEREAS, The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture and Markets, in cooperation with the livestock breeders and farmers of the state, instituted an action in the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York entitled "Aaron Mintz and Louis Mintz, Copartners, doing business under the firm name and style of Mintz and Mintz, against Charles H. Baldwin, individually and as Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets of the state of New York"; and

WHEREAS, The decision in this case in the District Court was two to one against Wisconsin, but there is good reason to believe that this decision might be reversed upon appeal; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the attorney-general is hereby authorized and directed to prosecute this case and any others of a like nature which may become necessary hereafter to a final decision and a decision by the United States Supreme Court if necessary, and to use every available resource of his department to defend and protect the markets for Wisconsin cattle, milk and other dairy products. Be it further

Resolved, That a properly attested copy of this resolution be transmitted to the attorney-general upon its adoption by both houses.

---

[Jt. Res. No. 37, A.]

[Deposited Mar. 1, 1933.]

No. 34, 1933.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Memorializing the Congress of the United States to enact the House Joint Resolution No. 199 to commemorate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the naturalization as an Ameri-