CHAPTER 108.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 203.06 (2) of the statutes, relating to combined coverage under standard fire insurance policy.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 203.06 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

(203.06) (2) (a) There may be inserted in the space indicated therefor or added to the policy by agreement in writing thereon or by endorsement thereto, the following:

1. Descriptions and specifications by schedule or otherwise of the property covered by the policy.

2. Any matter stating the extent of the application of the insurance under the policy.
3. Any matter stating the extent of the contribution to be made under the policy in case of loss or damage.
4. Any matter necessary to express all the facts and conditions relating to insurance on any particular risk.
5. In case of a mortgagee, or other person holding an interest in property by way of security, who is not named in the policy as an assured, a rider or endorsement, relating to the interest of such mortgagee or other person may be added to such policy.

(b) Every agreement or endorsement shall be plainly printed and in a type not smaller than 8-point and the facts or conditions of such agreement or endorsement shall not defeat or diminish the rights of the insured under the provisions of the standard fire insurance policy.

(c) Endorsements may be added to the standard fire insurance policy whereby the property described in such policy may be insured against any other risk authorized by statute which the insurer is empowered to assume under its charter, in addition to the risk of loss or damage by fire and lightning. The rate and premium for each additional risk assumed by endorsement may be clearly shown on the face of the standard fire insurance policy, directly below the fire rate and premium and in addition, it is permissible to show the total premium for all risks assumed under the policy and the endorsements attached thereto, together with a statement in substance that only such hazards are insured against as are indicated by such applicable rates and premiums and by the applicable riders and endorsements attached to such policy.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 15, 1941.
