CHAPTER 142.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money therein named to School District No. 8 in the town of Greenfield, Milwaukee county, as its proportionate share of elementary school aid from the state for the school year 1939-1940, from the apportionment of which said district was excluded by reason of the failure of a school officer to make reports required to be made to the state superintendent.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

There is appropriated to School District No. 8 in the town of Greenfield, Milwaukee county, from the general fund and charged to the appropriation made by section 20.25 (3), the sum of $300 as and for its proportionate share of elementary school aid from the state for the school year 1939-1940, from which apportionment said school district was excluded by reason of the failure of a school officer to make reports required to be made to the state superintendent.

Approved May 17, 1943.
