CHAPTER 312.

AN ACT to create 57.06 (4) of the statutes, relating to the parole of prisoners for induction into the armed service.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

57.06 (4) of the statutes is created to read:

57.06 (4) In time of war and until the termination of such war as proclaimed by the President or Congress, the state department of public welfare may, with the approval of the governor, grant a parole at any time to any prisoner confined in one of the penal institutions of this state, not otherwise eligible under this section, who may be eligible for induction into the armed forces of the United States. In time of war, the state department of public welfare shall have authority to suspend the parole of any prisoner released on parole. Such suspension of parole shall be for the duration of said parolee's service in the armed forces and said parole shall again become effective upon the date of discharge from the armed forces in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the state department of public welfare, provided, however, that if such parolee receives an honorable discharge from the armed forces, the governor may discharge such paroled convict and such discharge shall have the force and effect of a pardon to restore civil rights. Upon approval of such suspension of parole by the state department of public welfare, an order shall be issued and signed by the director of the state department of public welfare setting forth the conditions under which the parole is suspended, including instructions as to where and when and to whom such parolee shall report upon his discharge from the armed forces.
