CHAPTER 88.

AN ACT to amend 111.13 of the statutes, relating to meetings of the advisory committee of the employment relations board.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

111.13 of the statutes is amended to read:

111.13 The board shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of one member of the board who shall represent the general public and who shall act as chairman, and an equal number of representatives of employes and employers. In selecting the representatives of employes, the board shall give representation to organizations representing labor unions both affiliated and nonaffiliated; and in selecting representatives of employers it shall give representation to employers in agricultural, industrial and commercial pursuits. The board may refer to such committee for its study and advice any matter having to do with the relations of employers and employes.
