CHAPTER 113.

AN ACT to amend 35.20 of the statutes, relating to changing the title of the volume called "Town Laws" to "Statutes Relating to Local and County Government".

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

35.20 of the statutes is amended to read:

35.20 WISCONSIN * * * STATUTES RELATING TO LOCAL AND COUNTY GOVERNMENT. Simultaneously, as nearly as may be, with each issue of Wisconsin Statutes, the state printer, under the supervision of the revisor, shall print an edition of 2,500 copies, more or less as may be determined to be necessary by the director of purchases, of a volume to be designated "Wisconsin * * * Statutes Relating to Local and County Government", to be printed from type or plates used in printing Wisconsin Statutes and to contain the following chapters of the statutes, to wit: Chapters 5 to 12, inclusive, relating to nominations, elections and corrupt practices; and the several chapters relating to common schools, the county board, the powers, duties and liabilities of towns, town officers, the assessment of taxes, highways and bridges, drains, and fences; and such further sections of the statutes as the revisor shall determine are desirable and practicable to be included, together with an appendix containing suitable forms for use in the administration of such laws and a suitable index.

Approved April 26, 1951.
