CHAPTER 118.

AN ACT to amend 114.136 (1) (a) of the statutes, relating to airport approach protection.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

114.136 (1) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

114.136 (1) (a) Any county, city, village or town that is the owner of a site for an airport which has been approved for such purpose by the appropriate agencies of the state and the federal government may protect the aerial approaches to such site by ordinance regulating, restricting and determining the use, location, height, number of stories and size of buildings and structures and objects of natural growth in the vicinity of such site and may divide the territory to be protected into several areas and impose different regulations and restrictions with respect to each area, * * *. The provisions of such ordinance shall be effective whether the site and the lands affected by such ordinance are located within or without the limits of such county, city, village or town, and whether or not such buildings, structures and objects of natural growth are in existence on the effective date of the ordinance. Such regulations, restrictions and determinations are declared to be for the purpose of promoting the public safety, welfare and convenience, and may be adopted, enforced and administered without the consent of any other governing body. Any ordinance adopted under this section may be amended from time to time in the same manner as is provided for the adoption of the original ordinance in paragraph (2). The authority granted in this section shall be independent and exclusive of any other authority granted in the statutes.

Approved May 1, 1951.
