CHAPTER 619.

AN ACT to revise 327.08 (2) of the statutes, relating to legal custodians of the files and records of state agencies for the purposes of certifying copies and certifying nonfiling.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

327.08 (2) of the statutes is revised to read:

327.08 (2) The executive officer, secretary or chief clerk of any state agency, and in agencies headed by one person, the head of the agency or his deputy, are, for the purposes of this section and section 327.09, the legal custodians of the files and records of their agencies. In agencies having divisions, the heads of divisions are also legal custodians of the files and records of their divisions. "State agency" as used herein means the legislature, any officer, board, commission, department or bureau of the state government and the state historical society.

Approved July 13, 1951.
