

CHAPTER 561

AN ACT to amend 51.21 (1) of the statutes, relating to central state hospital.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

51.21 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

51.21 (1) The state hospital at Waupun is known as the "Central State Hospital"; and shall be used for the custody, care and treatment of persons committed or transferred thereto pursuant to this section and ss. 357.11 and 357.13. Whenever the superintendent is not a psychiatrist, all psychiatric reports, testimony or recommendations regarding the mental condition of a patient or prisoner shall be made by a staff psychiatrist of the hospital or the division of mental hygiene.

Approved August 4, 1955.
