CHAPTER 184

AN ACT to amend 347.41 of the statutes, relating to the use of speed indicators in motor vehicles.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

347.41 of the statutes is amended to read:

347.41 No person shall operate on a highway any motor vehicle primarily designed for use upon a highway, unless such motor vehicle is equipped with a speedometer which with reasonable accuracy registers the speed of the vehicle, except that motor trucks or truck tractors may be equipped with tachometers or any other devices that indicate speed and motor vehicles transported pursuant and in compliance with s. 341.47 (1) (b) and (c) may be equipped with a governor of speed of a type which restricts speed and which is set at a level equal to or below the limits of s. 346.58 (2) in lieu of a speedometer.

Approved July 10, 1959.
