CHAPTER 198, LAWS OF 1969

AN ACT to amend 260.11 (1) of the statutes, relating to direct action against insurers in negligence cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

260.11 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

260.11 (1) Any person may be made a defendant who has or claims an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff, or who is a necessary party to a complete determination or settlement of the questions involved therein. A plaintiff may join as defendants persons against whom the right to relief is alleged to exist in the alternative, although recovery against one may be inconsistent with recovery against the other; and in all such actions the recovery of costs by any of the parties to the action shall be in the discretion of the court. In any action for damages caused by the negligent operation, management, control, maintenance, use or defective construction of a motor vehicle negligence, any insurer of motor vehicles, which has an interest in the outcome of such controversy adverse to the plaintiff or any of the parties to such controversy, or which by its policy of insurance assumes or reserves the right to control the prosecution, defense or settlement of the claim or action of the plaintiff or any of the parties to such claim or action, or which by its policy agrees to prosecute
