UW 2.01 History: Renum. from UW 1.07 (4) to be UW 2.01 and am., Register, May, 1968, No. 149, eff. 6-1-68; renum. to be UW 1.07 (4) and am., Register, July, 1969, No. 163, eff. 8-1-69.

UW 2.02 Closing hours. (a) Except as specifically provided by this code, the chancellors or deans of the respective campuses, and other university officials having charge thereof, may establish closing hours and closed periods for university buildings, facilities and areas. Such closing hours and closed periods shall be posted in at least one convenient place on each of the campuses. Closing hours remain in force and effect until modified by 5 days notice, posted as required above, except that the chancellors, deans or other university officials having charge of such buildings, facilities, or areas, may, without notice, extend closing hours, or when the safety of persons or property requires it, restrict such hours, until further notice.

(b) It is unlawful for any person, except those assigned to work or authorized to be present during closed periods, to enter or remain in any university building, facility or area or portion thereof during closed periods fixed pursuant to this section. Any person violating this section shall be liable to a forfeiture of not more than $100.

History: Cr. Register, May, 1968, No. 149, eff. 6-1-68.

UW 2.03 Prohibitions. In order to prevent activities which physically obstruct access to University functions or facilities and which prevent the university from carrying on its instructional, research, public service and administrative functions, and to preserve order which is necessary for the enjoyment of freedom by each and every member of the university community, the following conduct is prohibited and any person doing any of the following shall be liable to a forfeiture of not more than $100:

(1) Intentionally physically blocking entrances to and exits from offices, classrooms or other university facilities with intent to deny to others their right of ingress to, egress from or use of such offices, classrooms or other university facilities;

(2) Intentionally physically denying to others ingress to or egress from, or the use of university offices, classrooms or other university facilities with intent to deny to others their right of ingress to, egress from or the use of such offices, classrooms or other university facilities;

(3) Intentionally physically restraining others from ingress to or egress from, or from the use of university offices, classrooms or other university facilities with intent to deny to others their right of ingress to, egress from, or the use of such offices, classrooms or other university facilities.
