

Chapter Tax 11

SALES AND USE TAX

- Tax 11.01 Concessionaires
Tax 11.02 Temporary amusement, entertainment, or recreational events or places

Tax 11.01 Concessionaires (sections 77.52 (7), (19) and 77.61 (2), Wis. Stats.). (1) Each person desiring to engage in or conduct business as a concessionaire at a fair, carnival, circus or other temporary location shall file with the department of revenue an application for a temporary seller's permit for each concession on a form prescribed by the department. At the time of filing such application he shall pay to the department a security deposit to protect the revenue of the state, which deposit for each concession shall be $10, regardless of the number of days a particular concession is operated at the event. At such time he shall also furnish the department with the name and address of his agent in this state upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon him may be served.

(2) A temporary seller's permit shall be valid only for the duration of the event for which it is issued.

(3) Each person granted one or more temporary seller's permits in a calendar year shall, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, file a concessionaire's annual sales tax return. On such return the security deposited during the calendar year may be claimed as a credit against the tax due.

(4) Examples of "concessionaires" are persons conducting the following businesses at such events: nickel pitch, pop in, ring toss, short range, basketball, guess your weight, jewelry stand, fish pond, photo stand and tip the bottle. Further examples include persons selling ice cream, cotton candy, candy apples, sno cones, popcorn, or frozen delight from stands at such events.

(5) For purposes of this rule, "concessionaire" does not include:

(a) A person who holds a permanent seller's permit for operating amusement rides, traveling vaudeville performances, menageries or object of curiosity shows;

(b) A person selling meals (including lunches or sandwiches).

Tax 11.02 Temporary amusement, entertainment or recreational events or places (sections 77.51 (7) (c), 77.52 (7), (19) and 77.61 (2), Wisconsin Statutes).

(1) "Admission" for the purpose of this rule means the right or privilege to have access to or use of a place, facility or location in Wisconsin where amusement, entertainment or recreation is provided. The gross receipts from the sale of admissions are subject to sales tax.

(2) "Places of amusement, entertainment or recreation" for the purpose of this rule include, but are not limited to, auditoriums, race tracks, street fairs, rock festivals or other places where there is any show or exhibition for which any charge is made including, but not limited to, the sale of tickets, gate charges, seat charges, entrance fees and motor vehicle parking fees.

(3) Pursuant to section 77.51(3), Wis. Stats., and as used in this rule, "person" includes any natural person, firm, partnership, joint venture, joint stock company, association, public or private corporation, cooperative, estate, trust, receiver, executor, administrator, any other fiduciary, and any representative appointed by order of any court or otherwise acting on behalf of others.

(4) Entrepreneurs, promoters, sponsors or managers of an amusement, entertainment or recreational event shall be regarded as retailers for the purposes of section 77.51(7)(c), Wis. Stats., if said entrepreneurs, promoters, sponsors or managers have control and direction of the event including activities such as controlling the sale of admissions or admission tickets; controlling or regulating the admittance of all persons to the event or place; determining the nature of the amusement, entertainment or recreation to be offered; deciding the scale of prices to be charged for admission; receiving the proceeds from ticket sales, including amounts from ticket agents or brokers; and deciding, or having the right to decide, the disposition of the net profits, if any, realized from the event.

(5) As retailers such entrepreneurs, promoters, sponsors or managers are persons liable for the sales tax and are required to hold a seller's permit for each place of operations pursuant to section 77.52(7), Wis. Stats., and may be required to post security as provided in section 77.61(2), Wis. Stats. Such retailers are required to have a seller's permit on the first date on which tickets or admission to an event to be conducted in this state are offered for sale.

(6) This rule does not apply to traveling attractions which perform in stadiums, theaters or other places where the permanent management of such stadium, theater or other location holds a valid seller's permit, controls the sale of tickets or admissions and assumes the liability for the payment of the sales tax. Further, it does not apply to churches or other nonprofit groups which operate within the occasional sale limitations of section 77.51(10)(c), Wis. Stats.
