(1) Each person desiring to engage in or conduct business as a concessionaire at a fair, carnival, circus or other temporary location shall file with the department of revenue an application for a temporary seller's permit for each concession on a form prescribed by the department. At the time of filing such application he shall pay to the department a security deposit to protect the revenue of the state, which deposit for each concession shall be $10, regardless of the number of days a particular concession is operated at the event. At such time he shall also furnish the department with the name and address of his agent in this state upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon him may be served.

(2) A temporary seller's permit shall be valid only for the duration of the event for which it is issued.

(3) Each person granted one or more temporary seller's permits in a calendar year shall, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, file a concessionaire's annual sales tax return. On such return the security deposited during the calendar year may be claimed as a credit against the tax due.

(4) Examples of "concessionaires" are persons conducting the following businesses at such events: nickel pitch, pop in, ring toss, short range, basketball, guess your weight, jewelry stand, fish pond, photo stand and tip the bottle. Further examples include persons selling ice cream, cotton candy, candy apples, sno cones, popcorn, or frozen delight from stands at such events.

(5) For purposes of this rule, "concessionaire" does not include:

(a) A person who holds a permanent seller's permit for operating amusement rides, traveling vaudeville performances, menageries or object of curiosity shows;

(b) A person selling meals (including lunches or sandwiches).

Tax 11.02 Temporary amusement, entertainment or recreational events or places (sections 77.51(7)(c), 77.52(7); (19) and 77.61(2), Wis. Stats.). (1) "Admission" for the purpose of this rule means the right or privilege to have access to or use of a place, facility or location in Wisconsin where amusement, entertainment or recreation is provided. The gross receipts from the sale of admissions are subject to sales tax.

(2) "Places of amusement, entertainment or recreation" for the purpose of this rule include, but are not limited to, auditoriums, race tracks, street fairs, rock festivals or other places where there is any show or exhibition for which any charge is made including, but not limited to, the sale of tickets, gate charges, seat charges, entrance fees and motor vehicle parking fees.

(3) Pursuant to section 77.51(3), Wis. Stats., and as used in this rule, "person" includes any natural person, firm, partnership, joint venture, joint stock company, association, public or private corporation, cooperative, estate, trust, receiver, executor, administrator, any other fiduciary, and any representative appointed by order of any court or otherwise acting on behalf of others.

(4) Entrepreneurs, promoters, sponsors or managers of an amusement, entertainment or recreational event shall be regarded as retailers for the purposes of section 77.51(7)(c), Wis. Stats., if said entrepreneurs, promoters, sponsors or managers have control and direction of the event including activities such as controlling the sale of admissions or admission tickets; controlling or regulating the admittance of all persons to the event or place; determining the nature of the amusement, entertainment or recreation to be offered; deciding the scale of prices to be charged for admission; receiving the proceeds from ticket sales, including amounts from ticket agents or brokers; and deciding, or having the right to decide, the disposition of the net profits, if any, realized from the event.

(5) As retailers such entrepreneurs, promoters, sponsors or managers are persons liable for the sales tax and are required to hold a seller's permit for each place of operations pursuant to section 77.52(7), Wis. Stats., and may be required to post security as provided in section 77.61(2), Wis. Stats. Such retailers are required to have a seller's permit on the first date on which tickets or admission to an event to be conducted in this state are offered for sale.

(6) This rule does not apply to traveling attractions which perform in stadiums, theaters or other places where the permanent management of such stadium, theater or other location holds a valid seller's permit, controls the sale of tickets or admissions and assumes the liability for the payment of the sales tax. Further, it does not apply to churches or other nonprofit groups which operate within the occasional sale limitations of section 77.51 (10) (c), Wis. Stats.

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.

Tax 11.08 Medical appliances, prosthetic devices and aids. (section 77.54 (22), Wis. Stats.) (1) DEVICES FOR HANDICAPPED PERSONS. Section 77.54 (22) (a), Wis. Stats., exempts gross receipts from the sale of "Artificial devices individually designed, constructed or altered solely for the use of a particular crippled person so as to become a brace, support, supplement, correction or substitute for the bodily structure including the extremities of the individual." This exemption includes trusses, supports, shoes, braces and elastic hose when specially fitted and altered to fit a particular person. This exemption does not apply to garments designed to restrict or enhance the body's shape for cosmetic purposes, or to wigs or hair pieces.

- (b) Sold to a licensed physician, surgeon, podiatrist, dentist or hospital for the treatment of a human being.
- (c) Furnished by a licensed physician, surgeon, podiatrist or dentist to a patient for treatment of the patient.

(d) Furnished by a hospital for treatment of any person by the order of a licensed physician, surgeon, dentist or podiatrist. For this exemption, "hospital" has the meaning described in section 140.24, Wis. Stats., and does not include nursing homes.

(e) Sold to this state or any political subdivision or municipal corporation thereof, for use in the treatment of a human being; or furnished for the treatment of a human being by a medical facility or clinic maintained by this state or any political subdivision or municipal corporation thereof.

History: Cr. Register, September, 1977, No. 261, eff. 10-1-77.

Tax 11.26 Other taxes in taxable gross receipts and sales price. (section 77.51 (11) (a) 4, (12) (a) 4 and (26), Wis. Stats.) (1) GENERAL RULE. (a) Tangible personal property sold at retail often is subjected to many direct and indirect taxes prior to reaching a retailer. Such taxes are commonly included in the price the retailer pays for the property and are not separately identifiable as taxes. Occasionally, however, a tax is either separately passed on to a retailer or is imposed at the retail level of activity, but is different from and in addition to the sales tax. Such tax may be imposed by this state, the federal government or a municipality.

(b) In determining the measure of sales and use taxes, certain separately stated or separately passed on taxes are included in gross receipts and the sales price, while others are not. However, the same taxes that are included or excluded from gross receipts are also included or excluded from sales price. Thus, the treatment of such taxes for sales and use tax purposes is identical, even though the measure of tax for each is gross receipts and sales price, respectively.

(2) TAXES SPECIFICALLY INCLUDED AS PART OF GROSS RECEIPTS AND SALES PRICE. The following taxes shall be included in a retailer's gross receipts and sales price:

(a) The fermented malt beverage tax imposed by section 139.02, Wis. Stats.

(b) The taxes imposed upon intoxicating liquors (including wine) by section 139.03, Wis. Stats.

(c) Any federal stamp tax and manufacturer's or importer's excise tax. Presently there are federal excise taxes on tires, inner tubes, tread rubber, certain trucks, truck parts, firearms, ammunition, lubricating oils, fishing equipment, cigarettes, beer, and intoxicating liquor (including wine).

(d) The federal fuel tax included in the price of special fuels subject to the sales tax (e.g., sales for use in aircraft, boats and other non-highway use).

(e) The cigarette tax imposed by section 139.31, Wis. Stats.

(3) TAXES SPECIFICALLY EXCLUDED FROM GROSS RECEIPTS OR SALES PRICE. The following taxes shall be excluded from a retailer's gross receipts or sales price:

(a) The federal communications tax imposed upon intrastate telegraph service and telephone service.

(b) Any tax imposed by the United States, this state or a Wisconsin municipality upon or with respect to retail sales, whether imposed upon the retailer or consumer, if measured by a percentage of sales price or gross receipts and if the retailer is required to pay the tax to the governmental unit which levied the tax (e.g., the tax provided in section 66.75, Wis. Stats., which municipalities are permitted to impose upon hotel and motel operators who furnish lodging to transients).

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.

History: Cr. Register, September, 1977, No. 261, eff. 10-1-77.

Tax 11.29 Leases and rentals of tangible personal property. (sections 77.51(4) (j), (7) (k) and (11) (c) 5, 77.52(1) and 77.58(6), Wis. Stats.) (1) GENERAL RULE. Gross receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property shall be subject to the sales and use taxes to the same extent that gross receipts from the sale of the same property would be subject to the tax. Because a lease is a continuing sale for the duration of the lease while the leased property is situated in this state (s. 77.51(4) (j), Wis. Stats.), a lessor shall pay tax on rental receipts for any period of time leased property is in Wisconsin, even though the property may have been acquired and/or used previously by the lessee in another state.

(2) PURCHASES FOR RENTAL. (a) A lessor's purchase of tangible personal property to be used solely for lease or rental shall be exempt as a purchase for resale.

(b) A lessor's purchase of lubricants, repair parts and repair services on personal property used solely for leasing shall also be exempt as a purchase for resale. However, if the same items are purchased by a renter or lessee, the purchases shall be taxable.

(c) Charges by a lessor to a lessee under a maintenance contract on leased personal property shall be taxable.

(3) PROPERTY BOTH RENTED AND USED PERSONALLY. If tangible personal property is purchased by a person who uses it part of the time and rents it out part of the time, the sale of the property to such person shall be taxable. The lessor's rental receipts shall also be taxable, unless the transaction is specifically exempt by statute.

(4) SERVICE VS. RENTAL OF EQUIPMENT. (a) A person who uses the person's own equipment to perform a job and who assumes responsibility for its satisfactory completion shall be performing a service.

Register, September, 1977, No. 261

(b) A person who furnishes equipment with an operator to perform a job which a lessee supervises and is responsible for the satisfactory completion of, shall be a lessor renting out such equipment. If it is customary or mandatory that the lessee accept an operator with leased equipment, the entire charge is subject to the tax. However, the operator's services shall not be taxable if billed separately and if a lessor customarily gives a lessee the option of taking the equipment without the operator.

(c) Charges for the rental of motor trucks shall be taxable. However, if drivers are provided by the truck's owner to operate the trucks and the public service commission and the department of transportation's division of motor vehicles consider the arrangement a transportation service under statute or under rules adopted by either or both of those state agencies, the charges shall not be taxable.

(5) CREDIT FOR SALES TAX PAID. If a lessor of tangible personal property paid a Wisconsin sales tax on the acquisition of property used solely for leasing purposes, the lessor may either request a refund of the sales tax from the seller or claim a credit against the tax due on rental receipts from the property involved. (s. 77.51 (11) (c) 5). If a credit is claimed, it shall expire when the cumulative rental receipts equal the sales price upon which the seller paid sales tax to the state.

(6) SPECIAL RENTAL SITUATIONS. (a) Demurrage. The charge a gas supplier makes to a customer-consumer, because a gas cylinder is retained beyond a 30 day (or other) period, shall be taxable. Such "demurrage" charges shall constitute rentals paid for the continuing possession of the cylinders.

(b) Water softners. The gross receipts from rental of a cylinder type water softener which is periodically removed from a customer's premises for recharging and replaced by another unit shall be taxable.

(c) Chemical toilets. A lessor's entire charge for the use of chemical toilets used at fairs and other similar events shall be taxable, including cleaning services provided as part of the total charge.

(d) Mobile homes. Rental of a mobile home shall be taxable unless the mobile home is converted to real property by hooking it up to utilities and placing it on a foundation on land owned by the lessor. However, even if it is placed on a foundation and hooked up to utilities, a mobile home shall remain tangible personal property if the lessor does not own the realty on which it is located.

(e) Lease cancellation charge. A payment by a lessee to a lessor for the cancellation of a lease of tangible personal property shall be taxable. The payment shall be deemed consideration arising from the original lease since it effectively decreases the term of the lease and thereby increases the rental payments for the actual period the property was used.

(f) Delivery and erection. Lessors of scaffolding or other tangible personal property who set forth separate charges for transportation, assembly and disassembly shall pay tax on their total gross receipts. A lessee rents property when it is assembled and in place and the charges for transportation, assembly and disassembly shall be deemed part of a lessor's rental receipts.

(g) Funeral coaches. An owner of a hearse shall receive taxable gross receipts when the owner furnishes it (with or without a driver) to a funeral director who is responsible for conducting the funeral service. If it is customary or mandatory that the lessee (funeral director) take the operator with the leased vehicle, the entire charge shall be taxable.

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.

History: Cr. Register, July, 1977, No. 259, eff. 8-1-77.

Tax 11.38 Fabricating and processing. (sections 77.61 (4) (f) and (h) and 77.52 (2) (a) 10 and 11, Wis. Stats.) (1) TAXABLE FABRICATION. Except for sales for resale described in section 77.52 (13) to (15), Wis. Stats., types of fabrication charges which are taxable, regardless of whether the customer or fabricator furnishes the materials, include charges for the following:

- (a) Printing and imprinting.
- (b) Tailoring a suit.
- (c) Fabricating steel which may involve cutting the steel to length and size, bending and drilling holes in the steel to the specifications of a particular construction job. The end result of the fabrication is a modification of a previously manufactured article.
- (d) Making curtains, drapes, slip covers or other household furnishings.
- (e) Making a fur coat from pelts, gloves or a jacket from a hide.
- (f) Cutting lumber to specifications and producing cabinets, counter tops or other items from lumber for customers (often referred to as "millending").
- (g) Bookbinding.

- (l) Threading pipe, or welding pipe.

- (n) Bending glass tubing into neon signs.
- (o) Laminating identification cards.

- (a) A caterer's preparation of food for consumption on or off the premises.
- (b) Dyeing or fireproofing fabric.

Register, September, 1977, No. 261

(c) Cutting or crushing stones, gravel or other construction materials.

(d) Retreading tires.

(e) Drying, planing or ripping lumber.

(f) Cleaning used oil.

(g) Application of coating to pipe.

Note: Sales or use tax may not apply in many cases because the customer is a manufacturer or other business entitled to issue a valid resale certificate to the producer, fabricator or processor. Such customer purchases the service "for resale" without tax. This rule does not impose a tax in such cases.

Tax applies to charges for producing, fabricating or processing tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers, whether or not the consumers furnish, either directly or indirectly, the materials used in the producing, fabricating or processing operation. Producing, fabricating and processing include any operation which results in the creation or production of tangible personal property, or which is a step in a process or series of operations resulting in the creation or production of tangible personal property except sales for resale. Sales or use tax applies to the entire amount charged for such services, including the charge for materials on which the service is performed.

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

The most common exemptions are described and enumerated in this section.

(c) This exemption shall not include:

1. Auditory, prosthetic, ophthalmic or ocular devices or appliances.

2. Splints, bandages, pads, compresses, supports, dressings, instruments or equipment.

3. Alcoholic beverages, soda water beverages or distilled water.

4. Cast materials.

5. Oxygen tanks.

(3) EXEMPT SALES: MEDICAL APPLIANCES AND PROSTHETIC DEVICES. The exemption for medical appliances and prosthetic devices under ss. 77.54(22) and (28), Wis. Stats., shall apply to sales of the following:

(b) Trusses, supports, shoes, braces and elastic hose only when specially fitted or altered to fit a particular person. "Altered" includes the bending of metal stays but does not include adjusting straps or seams.

(c) Artificial limbs, artificial eyes, hearing aids and batteries, colostomy, ileostomy and urinary appliances, artificial breast forms, pacemakers, and other equipment worn as a correction or substitute for any functioning part of the body. This exemption shall not apply to wigs or hair pieces, to garments designed to restrict or enhance the body shape for cosmetic purposes, nor to breathing therapy units which are not "worn" by a person.

(d) Crutches and wheelchairs for the use of invalids and crippled persons, open and closed end walkers (with or without casters) and canes which provide walking support by making contact with the ground at more than one point.

(e) Apparatus or equipment for the injection of insulin.

(4) MEDICARE CLAIMS. The administrator of Medicare claims (such as Surgical Care-Blue Shield) is under contract to withdraw funds from the United States treasury to pay the providers of medical services or for medical supplies and equipment. If the provider of a taxable item bills such administrator directly, the sale shall be a tax exempt sale to the United States. If the provider of a taxable item bills an individual who then seeks reimbursement from Medicare, the sale shall not be an exempt sale to the United States.

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

Tax 11.64 Background music. (section 77.51(4) (intro) and (j), Wis. Stats.) (1) GENERAL. Persons in the business of providing background music commonly utilize one or both of the methods set forth below. The sales and use tax consequences depend upon the method used.

(2) MUSIC PLAYED AT CENTRAL STUDIO. The gross receipts from the furnishing of background music to business, industry and others from a central studio over telephone circuits or by FM radio are not subject to the sales or use tax. The persons who provide such service are the consumers of the tapes, tape players, transmitters and other tangible personal property used to provide the service, and their purchases of these items, as well as telephone services from the telephone company, are taxable. However, the gross receipts from equipment leased or rented to the customer as part of providing this service are taxable, and an exemption for resale may be claimed on the purchase of such leased or rented equipment, if the equipment is used exclusively for lease or rental.

(3) MUSIC PLAYED BY CUSTOMER. The gross receipts from the lease, rental, hire or license to use all tangible personal property comprising a background music system are taxable when the system is located on a customer's (e.g., lessee's or licensee's) premises and is operated by the customer. Any charge for installing the system is taxable. The sale of the tapes, equipment and other tangible personal property to the person providing the system (e.g., the lessor or licensor) is exempt as a sale for resale, since rental is the equivalent of a resale.

Tax 11.80 Sales of ice. (section 77.52 (1) and 77.53 (1), Wis. Stats.)

(1) Ice is tangible personal property, the retail sale of which is subject to sales tax, unless sold in an exempt transaction supported by a properly executed exemption certificate. Ice is sold at retail when it is sold for use or consumption but not for resale. For example, ice used for refrigeration purposes is consumed in the process of refrigeration; whereas, ice used in drinks is purchased for resale by the seller of the drink.

(2) Examples of taxable sales of ice (including dry ice) are:

(a) Sales through vending machines.

Register, September, 1977, No. 261

(b) Sales to restaurants, taverns, grocery stores and meat markets when the ice is consumed in cooling bottled drinks or preserving foods.

(c) Sales to railroads or commercial fishermen for use in refrigerating railway cars or vessels.

(3) Examples of nontaxable sales of ice are:

(a) Sales to restaurants, taverns and soda fountains to be used exclusively in drinks (exempt as sales for resale).

(b) Sales to manufacturers, producers or food processors for use inside the shipping cases of merchandise being transferred to a customer (exempt as "shipping material" under section 77.54(6) (b), Wis. Stats.).

(c) Ice sold to manufacturers which is consumed or destroyed or loses its identity in the manufacture of tangible personal property becoming an ingredient or component in any form destined for sale.

(4) (a) If ice is sold to a person who will use it both for a taxable purpose (ex., refrigeration) and nontaxable purpose (ex., for resale), the total charge shall be divided between taxable and nontaxable use. The tax is then payable on the ice to be used in a taxable manner. If no division is made, the tax applies to the total sale.

(b) Ice purchased without payment of the tax and subsequently used in a taxable manner is subject to the use tax under section 77.53 (1), Wis. Stats.

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.

Tax 11.81 Industrial gases, welding rods and fluxing materials. (section 77.54(2), Wis. Stats.) (1) GENERAL STATEMENT. The tax status of retail sales of industrial gases, welding rods and fluxing materials depends upon the use of the property by the purchaser. Section 77.54(2), Wis. Stats., exempts from the sales tax "The gross receipts from sales of and the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property becoming an ingredient or component part of an article of tangible personal property or which is consumed or destroyed or loses its identity in the manufacture of tangible personal property in any form destined for sale, but this exemption shall not include fuel or electricity." Therefore, the sale of industrial gases, welding rods or fluxing materials shall be:

(a) Exempt if they become ingredients or components of tangible personal property destined for sale; or

(b) Exempt if they are consumed, destroyed or lose their identity in the manufacture of tangible personal property destined for sale, except the sale of gas is taxable if the gas is used as a fuel. Fuel is a material used to produce heat or power by burning, or is something that feeds a fire; or

(c) Taxable if they are sold to a person who consumes them in a nonmanufacturing activity.

(2) INDUSTRIAL GASES. Common types of industrial gases are argon, helium, hydrogen, nitrogen, acetylene, carbon dioxide and oxygen. (a) Sales of industrial gases which are exempt because they become an ingredient or component of tangible personal property destined for sale by the purchaser include:

1. Carbon dioxide used to produce dry ice or carbonated soft drinks.
2. Gases such as neon, helium or argon used as a filler in the production of light bulbs and tubes.
3. Hydrogen used in hydrogenating vegetable oils.
4. Acetylene used as a base in the manufacture of synthetic materials.
5. Oxygen used in the chemical industry for oxidation processes, when not used as a fuel to produce heat.

(b) Taxable sales of gases used by a manufacturer as fuel include:

1. Oxygen used in industrial furnaces.
2. Acetylene or other gases used in torches in the manufacture of tangible personal property.

(c) Taxable sales of gases to nonmanufacturers, whether or not used by the purchaser as fuel, include:

1. Acetylene or other gases used by automobile body shops or by other repair establishments.
2. Gases used in mining or quarrying.
3. Nitrogen used by telephone companies in underground cables.

(3) WELDING RODS (stick electrode or filler rods). Since welding rods (stick electrode or filler rods) are physically transferred and become a part of an item produced or repaired, their sale is exempt if used by the purchaser in producing tangible personal property destined for sale or in repairing tangible personal property for a consideration. The sale of welding rods to manufacturers who use them in repairing their machinery used directly and exclusively in manufacturing is exempt. However, the sale of such rods to construction contractors for use in fulfilling real property construction contracts is taxable.

(4) FLUXING MATERIALS. Fluxing materials sold to a manufacturer for use in manufacturing tangible personal property destined for sale are exempt because they are consumed in the manufacturing process. When fluxing materials are sold for use by a manufacturer to repair its own production machinery or equipment (a nonmanufacturing activity) they are taxable. Fluxing materials sold to a repair shop or to a real property construction contractor or to any other non-manufacturer are taxable.

Note: The interpretations in this rule are effective under the general sales and use tax law on and after September 1, 1969.
