

Chapter Med 10

UNPROFESSIONAL CONDUCT DEFINED

Med 10.01 Authority and purpose.

Med 10.02 Definitions.

Note: Chapter Med 10 as it existed on October 31, 1976 was repealed and a new Chapter Med 10 was created effective November 1, 1976.

Med 10.01 Authority and purpose. The definitions of this chapter are adopted by the medical examining board pursuant to the authority delegated by sections 15.08(5), 227.08, and 448.40, Wis. Stats., for the purposes of chapter 448, Wis. Stats.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

Med 10.02 Definitions. (1) For the purposes of these rules:

- (a) "Board" means the medical examining board.
- (b) "License" means any license, permit, certificate, or registration issued by the board.
- (2) The term "unprofessional conduct" is defined to mean and include but not be limited to the following, or aiding or abetting the same:
  - (a) Violating or attempting to violate any provision or term of chapter 448 of the statutes or of any valid rule of the board.
  - (b) Violating or attempting to violate any term, provision, or condition of any order of the board.
  - (c) Knowingly making or presenting or causing to be made or presented any false, fraudulent, or forged statement, writing, certificate, diploma, or other thing in connection with any application for license.
  - (d) Practicing fraud, forgery, deception, collusion, or conspiracy in connection with any examination for license.
  - (e) Giving, selling, buying, bartering, or attempting to give, sell, buy, or barter any license.
  - (f) Engaging or attempting to engage in practice under any license under any given name or surname other than that under which originally licensed or registered to practice in this or any other state. This subsection does not apply to change of name resulting from marriage, divorce, or order by a court of record.
  - (g) Engaging or attempting to engage in the unlawful practice of medicine and surgery or treating the sick.
  - (h) Any practice or conduct which tends to constitute a danger to the health, welfare, or safety of patient or public.
  - (i) Practicing or attempting to practice under any license when unable to do so with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

Register, October, 1977, No. 262

(j) Practicing or attempting to practice under any license beyond the scope of that license.

(k) Offering, undertaking, or agreeing to treat or cure a disease or condition by a secret means, method, device, or instrumentality; or refusing to divulge to the board upon demand the means, method, device, or instrumentality used in the treatment of a disease or condition.

(l) Representing that a manifestly incurable disease or condition can be or will be permanently cured; or that a curable disease or condition can be cured within a stated time, if such is not the fact.

(m) Knowingly making any false statement, written or oral, in practicing under any license, with fraudulent intent.

(n) Wilfully divulging a privileged communication or confidence entrusted by a patient or deficiencies in the character of patients observed in the course of professional attendance, unless lawfully required to do so.

(o) Soliciting or attempting to solicit patients, directly, indirectly, or by agents.

(p) Administering, dispensing, prescribing, supplying, or obtaining controlled substances as defined in section 161.01(4), Wis. Stats. otherwise than in the course of legitimate professional practice, or as otherwise prohibited by law.

(q) Having a license, certificate, permit, or registration granted by another state to practice medicine and surgery or treat the sick limited, restricted, suspended, or revoked, or having been subject to other disciplinary action by the licensing authority thereof.

(r) Conviction of any crime which may relate to practice under any license, or of violation of any federal or state law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of controlled substances as defined in section 161.01(4), Wis. Stats. A certified copy of a judgment of a court of record showing such conviction, within this state or without, shall be presumptive evidence thereof.

(s) Prescribing, ordering, dispensing, administering, supplying, selling, or giving any amphetamine drug or compound or derivative, congener or analogue thereof to or for any person except for the treatment of narcolepsy, or for the treatment of hyperkinesia, or for the treatment of drug induced brain dysfunction, or for the differential diagnostic psychiatric evaluation of depression, or for the treatment of depression shown to be refractory to other therapeutic modalities, or for the clinical investigation of the effects of such drugs or compounds in which case an investigative protocol therefore shall have been submitted to and reviewed and approved by the board before such investigation has been begun.
