the hearing and, on the evidence presented, may make a decision and issue an order.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.17 Subpoenas and witnesses. The hearing examiner designated to conduct the hearing may sign and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses or parties at hearings.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.18 Record of hearings. (1) METHOD. Hearings will be recorded either stenographically or mechanically, and the transcript together with all exhibits, shall be a part of the official record of such proceeding. A typed transcript will be made when deemed necessary by the board. If a transcript is made by the board, copies will be furnished to all persons upon request at a reasonable cost. If no transcript is deemed necessary by the board and a party requests that one be prepared, that party shall be responsible for all costs of transcript preparation. In lieu of a transcript the board will provide any person a copy of the tape recording of the hearing if mechanically recorded upon request and at a reasonable cost. All requests pursuant to the foregoing shall be made in writing and presented to the hearing examiner at the hearing.

(2) FINANCIAL NEED. Any party who by affidavit or other appropriate means can establish to the board's satisfaction that the party is impecunious may be provided a copy of the transcript or a copy of the tape recording without charge.

(3) ERRORS IN RECORD. Any party, within 7 days of the date of mailing of the transcript, may file with the board a notice in writing of any claimed error in the record and shall mail a copy of the notice to each party of record. All parties will be advised by the board of any authorized corrections to the record.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.19 Stipulations. All stipulations or agreements in reference to a matter that is the subject of a hearing shall be either dictated at length into the record, or reduced to writing, shall be signed by the persons or parties stipulating, and filed as a part of the record of the proceedings. Controversies, or matters which may be the subject of a hearing, may be disposed of by stipulation, agreed settlement, or consent orders.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.20 Motions. (1) PROCEDURE. Unless made during a hearing or prehearing conference, all motions shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds for the motion and the relief or order sought. A notice of motion is not required, notice being satisfied by service of the copy of the motion.

(2) SUPPORTING PAPERS. A brief or other papers in support of a motion including affidavits and documentary evidence, shall be served and filed with the motion.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.21 Oral statements and arguments. Parties may make opening statements after appearances have been entered, and any party to the proceeding may make closing argument at the close of the hearing, which shall not be included in the stenographic or mechanical report of the hearing, unless the presiding officer so directs. The hearing examiner may in his or her discretion, limit the amount of time for opening statement or closing arguments.

Register, February, 1981, No. 302

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.22 Briefs. The hearing examiner at the hearing shall indicate whether or not briefs are desired and may impose a briefing schedule. If the time for filing briefs has expired and the brief of one or more of the parties has not been filed within the prescribed time, the board may proceed to its determination of the matter. Extension of time to file briefs may be granted by the hearing examiner upon good cause shown.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.23 Decisions. Where a proposed decision is prepared and circulated pursuant to s. 227.09 (2) or (4), Stats., objections thereto shall be filed within 15 days of service unless a different period is specified by the hearing examiner or board. Objections and briefs shall be filed together and served on all parties.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.24 Petition for rehearing. The board shall not grant a rehearing except upon formal petition being filed with the board within 20 days after service of the final order and decision. Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of some material error of law or fact, or new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the order, and which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence. The board may order a rehearing or enter an order with reference to the petition without a hearing, and shall dispose of the petition within 20 days after it is filed. If the board does not enter an order disposing of the petition within the 20 day period, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied as of the expiration of the 20 day period.

History: Cr. Register, February, 1981, No. 302, eff. 3-1-81.

A-V 4.25 Notice and explanation upon denial of certification to educational personnel. Upon denial of an application for certification pursuant to ch. A-V 3, Wis. Adm. Code, the board shall notify the applicant and candidate in writing. Both the applicant and candidate shall have a right to a hearing upon denial if a written petition for review is filed with the board within 30 days of the decision. The board shall make available to the applicant or candidate all materials in its possession which were used in reaching the decision to deny a certificate. The burden of proving certifiability pursuant to ch. A-V 3, Wis. Adm. Code will remain on the applicant.
