VA 1.01 Liberal statutory construction. The department of veterans affairs shall administer the provisions of chapter 45, Wis. Stats., in an expeditious and liberal manner, resolving all reasonable doubt in favor of the veteran, to the end that available benefits are provided to veterans and their eligible dependents as promptly and effectively as possible.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65; am. Register, October, 1967, No. 142, eff. 11-1-67.

VA 1.02 Application. An application for benefits from the department must be made on approved departmental forms, signed by an eligible dependent, or by the veteran and/or such other person as the department may require in connection with the specific benefit application involved. The department may require that a loan application or a credit instrument executed in connection with a loan be signed by the veteran's spouse only in a case where such requirement may legally be imposed under Wis. Adm. Code section Bkg. 80.85 and under the provisions of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act and regulations adopted thereunder. It is unlawful for anyone to charge an applicant or spouse a commission for assisting them in completing or securing the approval of an application for benefits from the department.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65; r. and recr., Register, November, 1971, No. 191, eff. 12-1-71; am. Register, August, 1972, No. 200, eff. 9-1-72; am. Register, July, 1976, No. 247, eff. 8-1-76.

VA 1.03 Appeal. Any applicant for any benefit available through this department may, in addition to making a supplemental written presentation, appear in person, with or without counsel, to present the merits of his case or to appeal from a decision of the department before the appropriate departmental committee. In such cases, recommendations by the committee shall be submitted promptly to the board for review and final action on the appeal.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65.

VA 1.04 Benefits to those who qualify. The department shall give assistance to all resident ex-servicemen and their dependents in all matters connected with the securing of any aid or benefit which may be due them under federal or state law by reason of service in the armed forces of the United States. Financial aid from the department will not be extended to veterans or dependents where need for such aid arises or results from the willful misconduct of the veteran or the beneficiary.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65; am. Register, October, 1967, No. 142, eff. 11-1-67.

VA 1.05 Cooperation with other agencies. In addition to coordinating the activities of all state agencies relating to the medical, educational, economic or vocational rehabilitation of veterans and their dependents, the department shall cooperate with all federal, state, county or other agencies whose functions include rehabilitation of veterans.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65; am. Register, October, 1967, No. 142, eff. 11-1-67.

VA 1.06 Definition—"veteran". (s. 45.35 (5), Stats.) For the purposes of this chapter and chapters VA 2 and 3, "veteran" shall mean either a veteran as defined in section 45.35 (5) Stats., or a deceased veteran's unremarried widow, widower or minor or dependent child who is a resident of and living in this state at the time of making application for benefits.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1967, No. 142, eff. 11-1-67; am. Register, June, 1970, No. 174, eff. 7-1-70; am. Register, September, 1978, No. 273, eff. 10-1-78.

VA 1.07 Strike relief not temporary aid. Aid for direct strike relief does not fall within the definition of temporary aid.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65.

VA 1.08 False statements. (1) SUSPENSION OF BENEFITS. (a) Investigation and suspension. When it appears that a false statement has been made in connection with an application for benefits from the department, the department shall use such means of investigating such apparent false statement as it deems advisable. In any case where the department finds after investigation that any applicant for benefits from the department has willfully made or caused to be made, or conspired, combined, aided or assisted in, agreed to, arranged for, or in any wise procured the making of a false or fraudulent affidavit, declaration, certificate, statement or other writing, it may suspend all benefits available to such applicant from the department.

(b) Right to appeal. Before such suspension is made effective, the applicant may within 30 days request that he be permitted to appear before the loan advisory committee in person, with or without counsel, to present reasons why such action should not be taken. In such cases, recommendations by the loan advisory committee shall be submitted promptly to the board for review and final action on the appeal.

(c) Reinstatement of benefits. The department after investigation may reinstate benefits. If the department shall find that an application for reinstatement is made without sufficient cause to justify reinstatement it shall deny the same.

(2) CRIMINAL PROSECUTION. In proper cases, where the department is satisfied that a false statement has been made in connection with an application for benefits, it may forward the relevant facts to the appropriate district attorney for necessary action pursuant to section 45.37 (17) (b), [45.35 (17) (b)], Wis. Stats.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65; r. and recr., Register, August, 1972, No. 200, eff. 9-1-72.

VA 1.09 Reduced payments because of return to service. When a veteran has returned to military service and desires either a reduction in monthly payments or a deferment of payments, the department can properly act upon his application for reduction or deferment when the following statements are submitted:

(1) A statement from the veteran which discloses his present income and demonstrates that his income has been materially decreased by virtue of his military service, and

(2) A statement by the county veterans service officer concerned that his investigation indicates that said application is justified and should be approved.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65.

VA 1.10 Release of information and records. All records and papers of the department or of a county veterans service office, hereinafter in this section referred to as service office, are to be utilized in a manner to best serve the public interest, but the veteran's right of privacy as to information pertaining to his military or naval service and to confidential information contained in applications for benefits will be respected.

(1) VETERANS ADMINISTRATION RECORDS AND SEPARATION DOCUMENTS. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Wis. Adm. Code, s. VA 1.10 (4) through (14) separation documents and copies thereof evidencing service in the armed forces of the United States and records and papers in the possession of the department or service office which are released to the department or service office by or from the veterans administration or which contain information provided by the veterans administration are confidential. Release of information from such documents, records or papers may be made only as provided in s. 45.36 (2) and (3), Stats. The department may, however, confirm the veteran status of a person where such confirmation will assist the person in obtaining benefits.

(2) PERSONNEL RECORDS. Employee personnel records and information contained therein, the release of which would affect the morale, efficiency or discipline of members of the department will not be released.

(3) RECORDS ARE CONFIDENTIAL. Records pertaining to any application for benefits, whether pending or adjudicated, will be deemed confidential and no disclosure therefrom will be made except in the circumstances and under the conditions set forth in Wis. Adm. Code, s. VA 1.10 (4) through (15), and any person making application for benefits shall hereinafter be referred to as the applicant.

(4) DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION TO AN APPLICANT OR DULY AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVE. An applicant may not have access to department records concerning himself pertaining to an application for benefits from the department, but information from official records may be disclosed to an applicant or his duly authorized representative as to matters concerning the applicant.

(5) PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO REPRESENT APPLICANTS. "Duly authorized representative" shall be defined as any person authorized in writing by the applicant to act for him, or his legally constituted representative if the applicant is incompetent or deceased. Where for proper reason no such representative has been or will be appointed, his spouse, an adult child or if the applicant is unmarried, either of his parents shall be recognized as the duly authorized representative of the applicant.

(6) DISCLOSURE OF MEDICAL INFORMATION. (a) To veterans. Information contained in medical records pertaining to applications for benefits from the department which are on file with the department or service office may be released to the veteran upon request, except information contained in the medical record which would prove injurious to his physical or mental health, in which case information will be released only to his duly authorized representative.

(b) To physicians and hospitals. Information contained in medical records of veterans and beneficiaries pertaining to medical history, diagnosis, findings, or treatment contained in applications for benefits from the department may be disclosed directly to physicians and hospitals upon written request and the submission of a written authorization from the veteran or beneficiary, or, in the event he is incompetent, from his duly authorized representative. This information will be released only with the consent of the patient and on the condition that it is to be treated as a privileged communication. However, such information may be released without the consent of the veteran or his representative when a written request for such information is received from the veterans administration, the United States public health service, the superintendent of a state hospital, a commissioner or head of a state department of mental hygiene, or head of a state, county or city health department.

(7) DISCLOSURE OF LOAN INFORMATION. Information contained in loan files, information pertaining to action taken by the department on loan applications, or loan status information may be made available to any party having a security interest in the property securing such loans upon approval by the secretary or pursuant to rules promulgated by him.

(8) DISCLOSURE TO GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES AND SCHOOLS. Information contained in department or service office files pertaining to applications for benefits from the department which is required for official use by any agency of the United States government, by any agency of the state of Wisconsin, by any law enforcement or social service agency of any Wisconsin county or municipality, or by any school participating in the department's grants programs, may be furnished in response to official requests in accordance with the provision of pars. (a) to (c). Such requests must include information as to the purpose for which the information is to be used.

(a) Information relevant to a determination of the amount of benefits, if any, for which veterans and their eligible dependents may be entitled, information which is requested on their behalf or information which is requested for the purpose of assisting them in obtaining rights and benefits to which they may be entitled, may be released in response to official written or oral requests.

(b) Information which identifies individual veterans or their dependents, and which is requested for purposes other than those set forth in par. (a), may be released only upon receipt of an official written request. Within 5 working days after response to such a written request, the department or service office will make a reasonable effort to contact the individual concerning whom the request has been made and notify the individual of the request for information and provide the individual with a statement of the action taken on such request.

(c) The department may routinely furnish information to other agencies which does not identify individual veterans or dependents.

(9) DISCLOSURE TO MEMBERS OF STATE LEGISLATURE. Individual members of the senate and assembly may be furnished such information contained in department or service office files which pertains to applications for benefits from the department as may be requested, orally or in writing, on behalf of the veterans or their dependents or for the purpose of assisting them to obtain the rights and benefits to which they may be entitled. Committees of the senate and assembly may be furnished such information contained in department or service office files which pertains to applications for benefits from the department as may be requested for official use.

(10) DISCLOSURE TO COUNTY VETERANS SERVICE OFFICERS. A county veterans service officer may be permitted to inspect records pertaining to any application for benefits in which such office may be involved or may be furnished information or exhibits from such an application or the payment status or the payment history pertinent to department loans upon the condition that only such information contained therein or furnished therefrom as may be properly disclosed will be disclosed to the applicant only or, if the applicant is incompetent, the applicant's legally constituted representative. The department shall inform a county veterans service officer whose office is involved in an application for benefits of information necessary to complete such application and of action taken by the department thereon.

(11) DISCLOSURE TO AUDITORS. Department records and files shall be made available for inspection by, and information contained in department files shall be made available to, the legislative audit bureau or the legislative fiscal bureau in accordance with ss. 13.94 (1) to (4) and 13.95 (1) and (2), Stats., or to independent auditors only for statistical or audit reporting purposes upon the condition that information reported by such auditors or bureaus will not identify any specific individual by name or be reported in such manner as to clearly identify a specific individual.

(12) APPLICATION STATUS INFORMATION. Information on the status of an application for a department benefit, or for the establishment of eligibility for a department benefit, may be released to a party having an interest in the veteran or dependent obtaining the benefit applied for or establishing eligibility to apply for a specific department benefit, or to a person who is calling on behalf of an applicant for a department benefit.

(13) RELEASE OF INFORMATION TO AUTHORIZED LENDERS. All information and exhibits in the possession of the department pertaining to direct housing loan applications or direct housing loans may be released to authorized lenders servicing, closing or processing the applications or loans involved.

(15) JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS. When records pertaining to any application for benefits are requested for use in any judicial proceedings, they will be released only upon service of a proper subpoena and upon the condition that they will be returned upon conclusion of such proceedings.

(16) ADDRESSES OF APPLICANTS. Addresses of applicants for benefits from the department which are contained in department or service office records will not be furnished, except as provided in Wis. Adm. Code, s. VA 1.10 (5) through (15). When an address is requested by a person to whom it may not be furnished, the person making the written request will be informed that correspondence enclosed in an unsealed envelope showing no return address, with the name of the addressee thereon and bearing sufficient postage to cover mailing costs, will be forwarded by the department or service office to such addressee's last known address. At the time the correspondence is forwarded, the return address of only the department or service office will be placed on the envelope. If such forwarded mail is returned to the department or service office as not deliverable, the original sender will be notified thereof, but the envelope will be retained by the department or service office. In no case will letters be forwarded for the purposes of debt collection, canvassing, or harassment. This section shall not apply to the furnishing of addresses by service officers to the department or vice versa.

VA 1.11 Duties and responsibilities of the secretary. The administrative and executive duties of the department shall be vested in the secretary to be administered by him under the rules and regulations of the department and subject to and in accordance with the policies established by the board.

(1) He shall employ a commandant for the Grand Army Home, he shall designate an employe of the department as his deputy, he shall appoint such persons as may be necessary to carry out the functions of the department, and shall, with (2) He shall administer and supervise all programs of the department, and he shall serve as an ex-officio member of all advisory, standing and special committees appointed by the board, unless specifically exempted.

(3) He shall coordinate the activities of the department with all state agencies performing functions relating to services available to veterans so as to make the benefits available as promptly and effectively as possible.

(4) He shall administer the program for temporary emergency grants to prevent want and distress and the program for educational grants for veterans.

(5) He shall administer the economic assistance and housing loan programs for veterans.

(7) He shall compile a record of the burial places within the state of persons who served in the armed forces of the United States in time of war, who were called into service in the 1961 Berlin crisis call-up, or whose service entitled them to receive either the armed forces expeditionary medal or the Vietnam service medal.

(8) He shall direct the operation of the Grand Army Home for Veterans at King through the commandant so as to provide that members receive complete personal maintenance and medical care.

(9) He shall direct the operation of the G.A.R. Memorial Hall through the superintendent so as to make the memorial collection instructive and attractive to visitors to the state capitol and shall directly supervise the curator of the Hall.

(10) He shall formulate and present the department's budget to the legislature.

(11) He shall present to the legislature all proposed legislation recommended by the board. He shall make such reports to and appearances before the legislature on such other matters as it may request of him.

(12) He shall supervise all funds of the department and he shall see that proper records are kept, and shall account for all funds disbursed for any reason whatsoever.

(13) He shall make such regular reports to the board as the board may request of him.

(14) He shall conduct an adequate program of public relations for the department.

(15) He shall make and establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the statutes pursuant to the policies established by the board, and he shall make such publication and distribution of such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary.

(16) He shall attempt to obtain full collection of all loans and may take all available legal steps to effect collection provided, however, that he shall have the authority to approve compromise settlements in appropriate cases.

(17) He shall administer the functions of the department in a careful and businesslike manner.

(18) He may refer any problems arising from the discharge of the above duties to an appropriate committee appointed by the board for counsel and advice.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1965, No. 111, eff. 4-1-65; am. intro. par., (4), (5), r. (6), am. (7), Register, October, 1967, No. 142, eff. 11-1-67; am. (9), Register, November, 1971, No. 191, eff. 12-1-71.

VA 1.12 Applicant and income limitations. (1) NUMBER OF APPLICANTS. The department will not accept more than 2 applicants for any department loan and will not accept more than 2 signers as makers on credit instruments to be executed in connection with such loans. Guarantors will not be accepted by the department for the purpose of making housing loan applications creditworthy.

(2) INCLUSION OF INCOME. A person's income shall not be deemed to be available as regular and dependable for the purposes of s. 45.351 (2) or 45.71 (9), Stats., unless such person is the veteran applicant or is a co-applicant who is either residing with the veteran applicant or who will jointly own and occupy the homestead to be purchased or constructed by the veteran applicant with the assistance of a department loan.

(3) CO-APPLICANTS. Subject to the provisions of subs. (1) and (2), the department shall consider the income, assets and debts of any applicant who is willing to sign all required credit instruments to be executed in connection with the loan for which application has been made and upon whom a complete application has been submitted to the department for the purposes of ss. 45.351 and 45.71 (9), Stats., as amended by chapters 26, 39 and 224, Laws of 1975, for the purpose of determining the creditworthiness of the application and for the purpose of determining its compliance with the provisions of ss. 45.351 (2), and 45.74 (1), (2), (3) and (5), Stats. An application must always be completed on the veteran applicant.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subs. (1) to (3), if a veteran applicant is married and not separated or in the process of obtaining a divorce, such applicant's spouse shall be a co-applicant for any department loan and must complete and sign the loan application and all credit instruments required to be executed in conjunction with the loan. If a veteran applicant is separated or in the process of obtaining a divorce, such veterans' spouse shall not be required to be a co-applicant for loan under s. 45.351 (2) or subch. II of ch. 45, Stats., and such spouse's income, assets and debts shall not be considered by the department. In order to be considered "separated" for the purposes of this subsection, a veteran and spouse must either be legally separated or must have been living in different dwellings for at least 3 months immediately next preceding the veteran's application for a loan. In order to be considered in the process of obtaining a divorce for the purposes of this subsection, a petition for a divorce of the veteran and spouse must have been filed with a court.

(5) ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE LOANS. There must be a minimum of 3 signers on guaranteed economic assistance loan notes, not more than 2 of whom may be makers and at least one of whom must be a guarantor.
