- (a) The name and address of the applicant;
- (b) The position of the individual filing the application;
- (c) The specific type of information for which confidential status is sought;
- (d) The facts and supporting legal authority believed to constitute a basis for obtaining confidential treatment of the information.

(4) ADDITIONAL INFORMATION. Within 21 days of the receipt of a complete application, the department shall mail to the applicant a list of written interrogatories the answers to which are necessary for a determination under this section. If an extension has not been granted and if the applicant fails to answer all the interrogatories within 30 days, the department shall deny the application. The department may also deny the application if the applicant fails to provide the information requested in the interrogatories. If a determination under this section can be made solely on the basis of information appearing in the application, written interrogatories may be waived by the department. The responses to the interrogatories shall be treated as confidential if a request for such treatment from the applicant accompanies the responses.

(5) PRELIMINARY DECISION. (a) Within 30 days of receipt of a complete application in instances in which interrogatories have been waived, or within 30 days of receipt by the department of the information requested in the interrogatories, the department shall issue a written preliminary decision on the request for confidentiality. The preliminary decision shall include:

1. A finding which identifies the type of information sought to be assigned confidential status, and

3. If such authority exists, a determination of whether the department is authorized by law to assign confidential status to the type of information at issue, and
4. The decision to deny or to grant the request in whole or in part.

(b) A preliminary decision to assign confidential status must be made pursuant to one of the following:

1. Section 144.33, Stats., or
2. Section 147.08(2)(c), Stats., or

4. Other specific statutory or common law right to confidential treatment of information.

(c) A preliminary decision made pursuant to s. 147.08(2)(c), Stats., or Youmans shall also include answers to the following questions:

1. How many people have knowledge of the supposedly "secret" information? Will disclosure increase that number to a significant degree?
2. Does the contested information have any value to the possessor? To a competitor? Is that value substantial?
3. What damage, if any, would the possessor of the secret suffer from its disclosure? What advantages would its competitors reap from disclosure?
4. What benefits are likely to flow from disclosure? To whom? Are they significant? In this connection, what is the public "need" for disclosure? Can it be satisfied in any other way?

(d) The definition of "trade secret" in s. 943.205(2), Stats., is adopted to apply to determinations made pursuant to s. 147.08(2)(c), Stats.

(e) A preliminary decision to approve the request in whole or in part shall be published by the department as a class 1 notice in the official state newspaper, and such other notice as the department deems appropriate shall be provided. The applicant or any interested member of the public may obtain an adjudicatory hearing on the preliminary decision to grant the request in whole or in part by petitioning the department for such a hearing within 10 days of receipt of notice. If the preliminary decision is to deny the request, the applicant shall be notified in writing of the decision by the department, and shall have 10 days after receipt of the decision to petition the department for an adjudicatory hearing on the preliminary decision.

(6) HEARING ON THE PRELIMINARY DECISION. (a) If a timely request is received, the department shall provide a hearing at which the applicant, the department and any other interested party may appear and present evidence or testimony supporting its position. A class 1 notice of the hearing shall be published by the department in the official state newspaper, and such other notice as the department deems appropriate shall be provided.

(b) The hearing shall be before a hearing examiner and testimony shall be under oath and subject to cross-examination. The burden of establishing the confidential status shall be with the applicant.

(c) The hearing examiner shall exercise discretion to determine which individuals may have access to information alleged to be confidential and shall exercise the authority provided by law to impose protective measures and conditions for inspection necessary to safeguard confidentiality of the information during and after the hearing.

(7) FINAL DECISION. If no hearing is requested within the time provided, the preliminary decision shall become final. If a hearing is requested, the decision of the hearing examiner shall be the final decision of the department, but may be reviewed in the manner prescribed by NR 2.20. The decision of the hearing examiner shall be in writing, shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall be provided to all parties to the hearing.

(8) INTERIM CONFIDENTIAL STATUS. No information for which confidential status was requested shall be open to public scrutiny until 40 days after issuance of the final decision. Additional information supplied by the applicant to support the request for confidentiality shall be treated as confidential. Unless judicial review is requested, this additional information shall be returned to the applicant following the 30-day period for filing a petition for judicial review.

(9) In any contested case hearing the hearing examiner, in determining the merits of a request for trade secret protection or confidential treatment of information which arises during the course of the hearing, shall render a ruling on the request only after receiving answers to the questions appearing in NR 2.19 (5) (c) 1., 2., 3. and 4.

NR 2.195 Public records and information. (1) It is vital that the public receive factual information on the affairs of state government through all forms of communication. Whether such information is requested by media representatives or individual citizens, department employees should assist in securing facts necessary to allow understanding of and participation in government and government agencies.

(2) (a) All department employees are authorized to answer questions within their competency, whether these are asked by the public or by representatives of the news media. Employees, in turn, are responsible for the factual accuracy of the information they provide.

(b) The following are the only exceptions to this "freedom-of-information" policy. Employees will not release information within the 6 stated exceptions without prior approval from the bureau of legal services. The exceptions are:

1. Law enforcement, auditing or other investigational information that might prejudice later court cases or quasi-judicial hearings;

2. Comment on a case before, during or after court or quasi-judicial hearings prior to a decision (except as a witness);

3. Financial, medical, social or personal histories and disciplinary data which may unduly damage reputations;

4. Discussions of personalities in personnel actions or in training sessions for state employees;

5. Information of a confidential nature that might inhibit private competitive rights, the investment of state funds or the state's bargaining power in acquisition and disposal of land and facilities;

6. Information specifically excluded from public inspection by law. (See section NR 2.19, Wis. Adm. Code).

(3) In cases where the district or bureau director are concerned that the public interest in withholding inspection outweighs the public interest in permitting it, the file or requested information shall be provided to the secretary, deputy secretary or division administrator for review with the bureau of legal services and for determination.

(4) District directors are designated as custodians of department district records and files and are delegated the responsibility for them as well as the authority to provide copies or inspection as provided herein.

(5) (a) Requests for copies of records and files must be complied with unless the records fall within the aforementioned categories. The requestor shall pay the copying charge for 10 or more pages. For 9 or less pages, there will be no charge. Copies shall be provided to the requestor within a reasonable period of time, but as soon as possible taking into consideration other duties and assignments.

(b) When a request concerns large amount of copy work (i.e., more than 100 pages), the file and request may be sent to the copying facility at GEF #2. In such cases, the requestor must make an advance payment of the copying charge and be informed that there will be a 10-day to 2-week processing period. The payment must accompany the copying request to the central office facility.

(6) (a) All formal meetings of state agencies and bodies, including advisory councils, will be open to the communication media and to the public, except where the matters under discussion fall in the categories listed in s. 19.85, Stats.

(b) Department employes are authorized and encouraged to participate in information activities contributing to a better understanding of the functions of state government, including radio and television programs, speeches, group contacts and magazine articles.
