

Chapter ERB 7PROCEDURE

(s. 111.55, Stats.)

ERB 7.01 Conciliation
ERB 7.02 Arbitration

ERB 7.03 Chairman of arbitration board

ERB 7.01 Conciliation. Upon his appointment, the conciliator shall promptly arrange meetings with the parties and endeavor to bring about a settlement of the dispute. At the conclusion of the conciliation, the conciliator shall immediately report to the commission in writing on a form provided by the commission the results of such conciliation. In cases in which conciliation is not successful, such report shall be filed with the commission not later than 20 days after the date of the appointment of the conciliator.

History: 1-2-56; am. Register, March, 1971, No. 183, eff. 4-1-71.

ERB 7.02 Arbitration. If it appears from such conciliator's report that the dispute between the parties has not been settled and that a continuation of such dispute will cause or is likely to cause the interruption of an essential service, the commission will promptly name arbitrators from its panel. The names of such proposed arbitrators will immediately be submitted to the parties to the dispute. The order appointing such arbitrators will provide a time and place, not more than 5 days after the time of the order, at which the parties to the dispute will meet with a representative of the commission, at which time the employer and the representative of the employes shall each strike one name from such list of arbitrators. The names remaining on the list shall then constitute the board of arbitration. The party having the first strike is to be designated by lot.

History: 1-2-56; am. Register, March, 1971, No. 183, eff. 4-1-71.

ERB 7.03 Chairman of arbitration board. In the event that 3 arbitrators are to hear the dispute, one shall be named chairman of the arbitration board by the Wisconsin employment relations commission.
