RL 25.03 Educational requirements of applicant for an original or renewal real estate salesperson's license. (1) There are no educational requirements to write the salesperson's examination.

(2) Within the 24-month period commencing with the last day of December following the granting of applicant's original real estate salesperson's license, each licensed real estate salesperson shall submit to the board evidence of attendance at 30 hours of educational programs set forth in s. RL 25.02 (3) (b) and (c) and approved by the department in accordance with this chapter.

(a) The department may give credit toward the completion of this requirement for an approved educational program attended by the licensee up to 3 years before the commencement of the 24-month period.

(b) This requirement may be satisfied as provided in s. RL 25.02 (4), except that the educational programs shall be substantially in compliance with requirements in s. RL 25.02 (3) (b) or (c).

(c) None of the 30 hours taken to satisfy the requirements of this subsection shall satisfy the continuing educational requirement in RL 25.05.

Note: Effective June 1, 1987 s. RL 25.03 will be repealed and recreated to read as follows:

RL 25.03 Educational requirements of applicant for an original real estate salesperson's license. (1) Each applicant for an original real estate salesperson's license shall present evidence of attendance at 45 hours of an educational program approved by the department in accordance with this chapter.

(2) The educational requirement in sub. (1) is not required of an applicant who submits proof that the applicant has received 10 semester hour credits in real estate or real estate related law courses at an accredited institution of higher education. A quarter hour credit equals $\frac{1}{4}$ of a semester hour credit.

(3) The 45 hours of educational programs for applicants for an original real estate salesperson's license shall cover real property law (a total of 45 hours which shall include a substantial amount of time on each of the following 17 topics):

1. Real estate licensing and the licensing law.
2. Legal environment, law of agency and civil rights and securities.
3. Contractual aspects of listings.

RL 25.05 Continuing education requirements for brokers and salespersons. (1) To establish an applicant's satisfactory completion of the continuing education requirement, every licensee shall submit to the department a record or evidence of attendance at a minimum of 10 hours of approved credit courses or non-credit educational programs every 2 years. To qualify under this section, non-credit educational programs and training sessions shall be approved before they are conducted.

(2) A licensee who is also licensed to practice law in the state of Wisconsin shall be granted credit for attendance at continuing legal education programs which the department determines to be related to real estate matters.

(3) A licensee shall submit evidence of completion of this continuing education requirement when applying for renewal of license, or the department shall withhold issuance of the renewal license until such evidence is submitted.

Register, February, 1987, No. 374

(4) (a) The department shall grant credit to a non-resident licensee for attendance at non-credit educational programs approved by the licensing agency in the licensee's state of residence to satisfy that state's mandatory real estate continuing education requirements.

(b) The department may, after reviewing supporting documents submitted by the licensee, grant credit to a non-resident licensee for attendance at non-credit educational programs offered outside the state of Wisconsin which comply with the requirements in s. RL 25.06 (2), but have not been approved in accordance with s. RL 25.06 (1).

(5) The 10 hours of continuing education shall be selected from:

- (a) Real property law.
- (b) Real estate appraising
- (c) Real estate financing
- (d) Real property management
- (e) Real estate counseling
- (f) Real estate marketing
- (g) The laws against discrimination in housing
- (h) Other real estate-related subjects which are consistent with sub. (6).

(6) The contents of continuing education programs shall consist of the real estate knowledges and practices that are broad-based and essential to the role of a real estate general practitioner as he or she acts in the best interests of the consumer. These contents shall directly relate to real estate principles and practices such as described in the Wisconsin Real Estate Law Manual and any overview text on real estate principles and practices, or to new developments in the field for which licensees have a demonstrated need. The department shall not approve offerings in mechanical office and business skills such as typing, speed-reading, memory development, personal motivation, salesmanship, sales psychology, nor sales promotions or other meetings held in conjunction with the general business of a salesperson's broker.

Note: Effective June 1, 1987 s. RL 25.05 will be repealed.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1979, No. 286, eff. 11-1-79; am. (1) and (4), Register, April, 1981, No. 304, eff. 5-1-81; am. (1), r. (4) (intro.), Register, June, 1982, No. 318, eff. 7-1-82; renum. from REE 16.05 and am. (1) to (4) and (6), Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83; r. Register, February, 1987, No. 374, eff. 6-1-87.

Note: Effective June 1, 1987 s. RL 25.055 will be renumbered to be s. RL 25.05.

RL 25.055 Requirements for approval of and certification of attendance at credit courses. (1) APPROVAL. (a) 60-hour and 30-hour requirement. 1. A school seeking initial approval of credit courses in real estate shall submit its application on the form provided by the department. The department may require the following information and materials:

- a. The department in the school which is offering the courses.

Register, February, 1987, No. 374

- b. The method of instruction for each course.
- c. The course numbers and titles.
- d. Detailed outlines of each course with specific allocations of classroom hours to each topic.
- e. A current school bulletin

2. Course approvals shall expire on September 30 following the date of initial approval and every September 30 thereafter. A school shall submit an application for reapproval to the department sufficiently early for the department to review it and approve the courses.

(b) Continuing education requirement. The department shall automatically approve and accept credit courses in real estate or real estate-related law commencing on or after May 20, 1978. Schools shall not be required to follow the requirements in par. (a) nor in RL 25.06, except that schools may not discriminate against anyone on the basis of sex, race, religion, age, physical disability, or national origin in their educational programs.

(2) EVIDENCE OF ATTENDANCE. The department shall accept only an official transcript or student grade report as evidence of satisfactory completion of credit courses.

(3) ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS. Students shall satisfy department attendance requirements by successfully completing credit courses in accordance with the attendance requirements of the school. The department shall not accept attendance at credit courses on an audit basis to satisfy the requirements of this chapter.

Note: Effective June 1, 1987 the title for sub. (1) (a) will read "90-hour and 45-hour requirements."

History: Cr. Register, October, 1979, No. 286, eff. 11-1-79; renum. from REB 16.055 and am. Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83; renum. from RL 25.055, Register, February, 1987, No. 374, eff. 6-1-87.

RL 25.06 Approval of non-credit educational programs. (1) A school seeking initial approval from the department of real estate non-credit programs shall submit its application on the forms provided by the department. Approval of non-credit programs shall expire on September 30 following the date of initial approval and every September 30 thereafter. A school shall submit applications for reapproval to the department sufficiently early for the board to review them and approve the non-credit programs.

(a) Qualifications of instructors. 1. Education and experience. Instructors of non-credit programs shall be approved by the department. Instructors shall be experienced in the subject which they are teaching; the board may limit its approval to specific content areas set forth in RL 25.02 (3) and 25.05 (5). Instructors shall possess at least one of the following minimum qualifications:

Note: Effective June 1, 1987, s. RL 25.06 (1) (a) 1. intro. will read as follows:

1. Education and experience. Instructors of non-credit programs shall be approved by the department. Instructors shall be experienced in the subject which they are teaching; the department may limit its approval to specific content areas set forth in ss. RL 25.02 (3) and 25.03 (3). Instructors shall possess at least one of the following minimum qualifications:

Register, February, 1987, No. 374

a. An instructor of real estate courses who is or has been engaged in the practice of teaching at an accredited institution of higher education.

b. Properly licensed or certified person who is engaged in the real estate aspects of appraising, financing, marketing, real property management, real estate counseling, real property law, or other related real estate subjects and has been for at least the past 5 years continuously engaged in such practice.

c. Member of the state bar of Wisconsin who is engaged in the field of real estate-related law.

d. A person, who, in the judgment of the department, is qualified by experience or education, or both, to supervise a course of study within the legislative intent of this section.

(b) Information required. 1. The department may require a school seeking initial approval and reapproval of non-credit programs to describe or furnish its organizational structure, registration policies, fee schedules, promotional materials, detailed outlines of each non-credit program with specific allocations of classroom hours to each topic, student records system, the names and qualifications of instructors, its method for evaluating instructors and a summary of evaluations conducted, and the time, date and location of each non-credit program.

a. The department may allow a school to apply for initial approval of non-credit programs without specific information concerning dates, times, locations, and instructors, but the school shall provide this information no later than the beginning of the approved program.

2. A school shall inform the department of any changes in the information required in subd. 1 within 10 days following the date of the change.

(2) Additional criteria for approval of non-credit programs follow:

(a) Applicants for approval of non-credit programs shall not discriminate against anyone on the basis of sex, race, religion, age, physical disability, or national origin in their educational programs.

(b) The entity applying for approval of non-credit programs shall have education as a primary function.

(c) A school shall not limit attendance at an approved program to members of a particular organization or to employees of a particular company.

(d) A program designated to satisfy the 60-hour or 30-hour requirement shall not satisfy the continuing education requirement for any licensee.

(e) The department shall not approve a non-credit continuing education program designed for less than 2 hours.

(f) The department shall approve a non-credit continuing education program only in its entirety. Licensees shall attend substantially the complete program in order to receive a certificate of attendance.

Note: Effective June 1, 1987 s. RL 25.06 (2) (d) to (f) will be repealed.

History: Cr. Register, October, 1979, No. 286, eff. 11-1-79; renum. from REB 16.06 and am. Register, February, 1983, No. 326, eff. 3-1-83; am. (1) (a) 1., r. (2) (d) to (f), Register, February, 1987, No. 374, eff. 6-1-87.

RL 25.07 Evidence for non-credit programs. (1) Schools shall provide an individual certificate of attendance to all students upon satisfactory completion of non-credit programs.

(a) Certificates of attendance shall contain minimum wording prescribed by the department.

(b) Certificates of attendance shall be signed by authorized persons whose signatures are on file with the department.

(c) The date of issuance on certificates of attendance shall be that of the last class attended by the student.

(d) Certificates of attendance at continuing education programs shall be on blue paper only.

(e) Only current licensees shall be eligible to receive a department-approved certificate of attendance for completion of a continuing education program.

(2) A school shall submit to the department a notarized list of those persons satisfactorily completing non-credit continuing education programs also certifying that the named students personally attended the minimum required statutory classroom instruction. The notarized list shall be furnished within 10 days following the date of completion of non-credit continuing education program(s).

(3) A school shall maintain for 5 years records sufficient to establish the attendance record submitted for non-credit 60-hour and 30-hour programs and continuing education programs.

Note: Effective June 1, 1987 s. RL 25.07 (1) (d) and (e) and (2) will be repealed and s. RL 25.07 (3) will be renumbered to be (2) and is amended to read:

RL 25.08 Investigation and review. (1) PERIODIC REVIEW. The department, or its duly authorized representative, shall investigate and review all approved educational programs, courses, and instructors. The method of review shall be determined by the department in each case and will generally consist of the following:

(a) Consideration of information available from federal, state, or local agencies, private organizations or agencies, or interested persons.

(b) Conferences with officials or representatives of the school involved or with former students of the school.

(c) Public hearing respecting the educational program, course, or instructor involved, with adequate written notice to the school and/or instructor.

(d) Investigation by visitation to the school.

(2) UPON COMPLAINT. In addition to investigation upon its own initiation, the department may investigate any school or instructor upon receipt of a complaint from an interested person.

(3) DENIAL OR WITHDRAWAL OF APPROVAL. If, after investigation, the department denies or deems it proper to withdraw its approval of any educational program, course, or instructor, written notification must be given with reasons for such action. The school or instructor may request a hearing before the department.
