Ind 88.03 Review of complaints. (1) PRELIMINARY REVIEW. The department shall review every complaint filed to ascertain whether the complainant is protected by the act, whether the respondent is subject to the act, whether the complaint states a claim for relief under the act and whether it has been filed within the time period prescribed by the act. Except where prevented by the anonymity requirement of s. 111.375 (1), Stats., the department shall serve upon the parties a preliminary determination and order dismissing any complaint which fails to meet these requirements.

Ind 88.05 Notice to respondents. Except where prevented by the anonymity requirement of s. 111.375 (1), Stats., the department shall serve a copy of a complaint which meets the requirements of s. Ind 88.03 (1) upon each respondent prior to the commencement of any investigation. History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

Ind 88.06 Investigations. (1) The department shall investigate all complaints which satisfy the review under s. Ind 88.03 and may subpoena persons or documents when related to an investigation. Subpoenas may be enforced pursuant to s. 885.12, Stats.

(2) If during an investigation it appears that the respondent has engaged in discrimination or unfair honesty testing against the complainant other than that alleged in the complaint, the department may advise the complainant that the complaint should be amended to so allege. If the complaint is so amended, the department shall investigate the allegations of the amended complaint as well as the allegations of the initial complaint.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

Ind 88.07 Initial determinations as to cause. (1) GENERAL. At the conclusion of the investigation, the department shall issue a written initial determination which shall state whether or not there is probable cause to believe that any discrimination or unfair honesty testing occurred as alleged in the complaint. The initial determination shall state the facts upon which it is based and shall be served upon the parties.

(2) PROBABLE CAUSE. If the department initially determines that there is probable cause to believe that any discrimination or unfair honesty testing occurred as alleged in the complaint, it may refer those allegations to conciliation. The department may, by a notice to be served with the initial determination, notify the parties that conciliation services are available but that if conciliation fails or is waived the matter shall be set for hearing.

(3) NO PROBABLE CAUSE. If the department initially determines that there is no probable cause to believe that discrimination or unfair honesty testing occurred as alleged in the complaint, it may dismiss those allegations. The department shall, by a notice to be served with the initial determination, notify the parties of the complainant's right to appeal as provided in s. Ind 88.08.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

Ind 88.08 Appeals of initial determinations of no probable cause. Within 30 days after the date of an initial determination that there is no probable cause, a complainant may file with the division a written request for a hearing on the issue of probable cause. If no timely written request is filed, the initial determination's order of dismissal shall be final. If a timely written request is filed, the division shall issue a notice certifying the matter to hearing. A hearing on the issue of probable cause shall be noticed and conducted in accordance with the provisions of ss. Ind 88.10 and 88.12-88.18, except that the parties may stipulate prior to the hearing that the administrative law judge may decide the case on the merits.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

Ind 88.09 Conciliation. (1) RESOLUTIONS OF DISPUTES. When a matter is referred to conciliation following a determination of probable cause, the department shall attempt to resolve the dispute between the parties by conciliation unless either party waives conciliation in writing.

(2) CONCILIATION AGREEMENT. If conciliation resolves the dispute, a written conciliation agreement shall be prepared which shall state all measures to be taken by any party. The agreement may provide for dismissal of the complaint, provided that such dismissal is without prejudice to the complainant's right to pursue the complaint against any respondent who fails to comply with the terms of the agreement.

(3) WAIVER OR FAILURE OF CONCILIATION; CERTIFICATION TO HEARING. If an attempt at conciliation is waived or unsuccessful, the department shall issue a notice certifying the matter to hearing. A hearing on the merits shall thereafter be noticed and conducted in accordance with the provisions of ss. Ind 88.10-88.18.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

The notice of hearing shall fully identify the parties and the case number. It shall specify a time and date of hearing not less than 30 days after the date of mailing of the notice of hearing and a place of hearing either in the county of the respondent's residence or in the county in which the alleged discrimination or unfair honesty testing appears to have occurred. It shall specify the nature of the discrimination or unfair honesty testing which is alleged to have occurred and shall state the legal authority on which the hearing is based. A copy of the complaint shall be attached to the notice of hearing.

Ind 88.11 Answer. (1) WHEN REQUIRED; FILING AND SERVICE. Within 21 days after the date of a notice of hearing on the merits, each respondent shall file with the division an answer to the allegations of the complaint. The department shall serve a copy of the answer upon all other parties.

Register, June, 1986, No. 366

(2) ANSWER; CONTENTS. The answer shall contain a specific admission, denial or explanation of allegation of the complaint. If the respondent is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, the respondent shall so state and this will have the effect of a denial. Admissions or denials may be to all or part of an allegation but shall fairly meet the substance of the allegation. Any affirmative defense relied upon, including without limitation the statute of limitations, shall be raised in the answer unless it has been previously raised by motion in writing. Failure to raise the affirmative defense that a complaint is barred by the statute limitations in a timely filed answer may, in the absence of good cause, be held to constitute a waiver of such affirmative defense.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

Ind 88.12 Pre-hearing conference. In any case set for hearing, pre-hearings may be held in accordance with the provisions of s. 227.07 (4), Stats.

Ind 88.13 Subpoenas and motions. (1) SUBPOENAS. The administrative law judge may issue subpoenas whenever necessary to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents. Subpoenas may be enforced pursuant to s. 885.12, Stats.

(2) MOTIONS. Motions made during a hearing may be stated orally and shall, with the ruling of the administrative law judge, be included in the record of the hearing. All other motions shall be in writing and shall state briefly the relief requested and the grounds upon which the moving party is entitled to relief. All written motions shall be filed with the administrative law judge or with the director of the division's bureau of legal services. Any party opposing the motion may file a written response. All written motions shall be decided without further argument unless requested by the administrative law judge or director.

The administrative law judge may exclude witnesses and exhibits not identified in a timely fashion pursuant to this section. This section does not apply to witnesses and exhibits offered in rebuttal which the party could not have reasonably anticipated using prior to the hearing.

(2) PRE-HEARING DISCOVERY. A party may obtain discovery prior to hearing, except that discovery directed to a complaint who is not represented by legal counsel shall not be permitted in the absence of written consent by the administrative law judge. The scope of discovery, the methods of discovery and the use of discovery at hearing will be the same as set forth in ch. 804, Stats. The administrative law judge has the same authority to compel discovery, to issue protective orders and to impose sanctions as the court has under ch. 804, Stats. Copies of all demands for discovery and responses to demands for discovery shall be filed with the division when they are served. Discovery may not be used prior to the

Such determination shall be made a part of the record and decision in the case.

History: Cr. Register, June, 1986, No. 366, eff. 7-1-86.

Postponements and continuances shall be granted only for good cause shown and not for the mere convenience of the parties, their attorneys or their representatives.

(5) FAILURE TO APPEAR. If the complainant fails to appear at a hearing, either in person or by a representative, the administrative law judge shall dismiss the complaint. If a respondent fails to appear at hearing, the hearing shall proceed as scheduled. If, within 10 days after the date of the hearing, any party who fails to appear shows good cause in writing for the failure to appear, the administrative law judge may reopen the hearing.

The record shall be transcribed into a written transcript at the department's expense only for the purpose of judicial review.

(2) TRANSCRIPTS. Copies of the written transcripts shall be at the expense of any party who requests the transcript, at a reasonable fee as determined by the department, except that copies shall be made available without cost to a party who submits a sworn affidavit of indigency and the inability to pay the cost of the transcript.
