relating to individuals; and a statement indicating that the public officer and employe of this state authorized to examine returns understand the provisions of ss. 70.375 (2) (b), 71.11 (44) and 77.61 (5), Stats., that any persons who use or permit the use of any information directly or indirectly so obtained beyond the duties imposed upon them by law or by the duties of their office shall be deemed in violation of said subsections.

(c) In addition to the requirements of pars. (6) The department may, when satisfied that the restrictions imposed by ss. 71.11 (44) and 77.61 (5), Stats., will be adequately safeguarded and a beneficial tax purpose is demonstrated, enter into agreements with governmental officials whereby information is disclosed or exchanged. In such instances the requirements of this rule may be modified in the discretion of the department.

(7) The information required to be submitted to the department under subs. (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) shall be submitted on forms provided by the department and shall be open to inspection by the public for a period of 2 years from the date such information is filed with the department. If a public officer, the attorney general, or a district attorney responsible for enforcement of the criminal laws, in the statement required under subs. (1)(a), (3)(a), (4)(b) or (5)(a) declares that a return is being examined for the purpose of a criminal investigation, the department shall accept that declaration as prima facie evidence of the fact that making such knowledge public would result in harm to the public interest which outweighs any benefit that would result from making it public, and the department shall not make such knowledge public for a period of 30 days from date of filing the statement.

(8) A public officer, for purposes of this rule, is any person appointed or elected according to law, who has continuous duties, has taken an oath of office and who is responsible for the exercise of some portion of the sovereign power of this state, or of the sovereign power of another state or of the United States, in which the public has a concern.
