Trans 105.02 Examination of applicants for instructor's license. (s. 343.63, Stats.). (1) The road test shall be scored in the same manner as are tests given for regular operator's licenses and shall also include an actual demonstration of procedures and techniques used instructing drivers. Tests required by s. 343.63 (1), (2), and (3), Stats., is required of all applicants for original instructor's license and applicants whose instructor's licenses have lapsed for one or more years. The department may also require retesting of currently licensed instructors either as a part of a routine retesting program or when it has reasonable cause to doubt the continued competency of any individual instructor.

(2) The statement submitted by the physician required by s. 343.63 (4), Stats., shall be on a form supplied by the department.

(3) If the information filed by the physician is such as to indicate the person is not physically fit to teach driving, the department may require the applicant to submit to further medical examination or deny the license.

(4) An authorized departmental representative may visit classroom sessions and ride in driver training cars during instruction for the purpose of evaluating the teacher's preparation, knowledge of the subject matter, and teaching ability, and determining if the approved course is being followed.

History: Cr. Register, November, 1979, No. 287, eff. 12-1-79.

Trans 105.03 Determination of satisfactory driving record and fitness (ss. 343.64 (4) and 343.65 (2), Stats.). (1) A person's driving record shall not be considered satisfactory to hold an instructor's license if that person:

(a) Has accumulated more than 6 demerit points under s. 343.32 (2), Stats., during any one-year period in the past 3 years.

(b) Has been involved in 2 or more accidents in a one-year period where the accident report indicates that such person may have been causally negligent.

(c) Has had his or her operator's license revoked, suspended or cancelled for a traffic violation other than a parking violation, at any time during the past 4 years.

(2) For the purpose of determining fitness, the department shall consider all relevant arrests and convictions for the past 5 years, and make such further examinations and checks as are deemed necessary.
