(b) Communications concerning an examination being written with accomplices outside of the examination room.

(c) Substitution by a candidate of another person to sit in the examination room for the candidate and write one or more of the examination questions or papers for the candidate.

(d) Reference to "crib notes," test books or other materials inside or outside the examination room during periods examinations are being written.

(2) Penalties imposed by the board for cheating on the examination shall be related to the seriousness of the offense. Cheating which was planned in advance is the most serious offense. Penalties may include the entering of a failing grade on all sections written for the examinations in which cheating occurred and suspension of the right to write the next scheduled examination after the examination in which cheating occurred or to the entering of a failing grade on all sections written for the examinations in which cheating occurred and suspension of the right to write for as many as the next 6 scheduled examinations after the examination in which cheating occurred. Time within which conditional credit previously earned for passing part of the examination may be extended by board action in situations where penalties are levied, and by as long as the period of suspension.

(3) If more than one candidate is involved in a connected offense of cheating on an examination, each candidate knowingly involved in the cheating is subject to penalties.

(4) Other jurisdictions to which a candidate may apply to write the certified public accountant examination during a period of suspension of the right to write shall be notified of the penalty levied in Wisconsin.

History: Cr. Register, November, 1993, No. 455, eff. 12-1-93.

Accy 3.10 Professional ethics examination. (1) A candidate for a certified public accountant certificate shall successfully pass an open book professional ethics examination on statutes and rules governing the practice of public accounting in Wisconsin.

(2) The passing grade on the professional ethics examination is 80.

(3) A candidate who fails to achieve a passing score on the professional ethics examination is not eligible for reexamination for 30 days following notification of the failure. A candidate who fails to achieve a passing score upon reexamination is not eligible for another reexamination for 90 days following notification of the reexamination failure.
