DOC 302.04 Custody classification. (1) The purpose of a custody classification is to determine the appropriate placement of an inmate in order to regulate the supervision and movement of inmates among institutions, and between institutions and community programs.

(2) Custody classification is determined by assessing the risk of each inmate regarding all of the following:

- (a) Assaultive or predatory behavior.
- (b) Escape, walk-away, and absconding occurrences.
- (c) Violation of inmate disciplinary rules under ch. DOC 303.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1979, No. 284, eff. 9–1–79; CR 00–140: r. and recr., Register January 2002 No. 553, eff. 2–1–02.

DOC 302.05 Custody classification levels. An inmate is classified under one of the following 5 custody classification levels based upon the result of an assessment of the inmate’s risk under the A&E or PR process:

(1) Maximum custody requires very close monitoring of inmate conduct, behavior and activities.

DOC 302.07 Factors in assigning a custody classification. The department may consider factors that include but are not limited to the following in assigning custody classification:

(a) Potential of physical danger to another.

(b) Harm done to the victim in the commission of the offense.

(c) Whether the inmate exhibited physical aggressiveness that exposed another to harm.

(d) Aggravating or mitigating factors in the commission of the offense for which the inmate was convicted.

(2) The inmate’s criminal record and juvenile delinquency adjudications.

(3) The length of sentence being served.

(4) The inmate’s motivation for the crime convicted of.

(5) The inmate’s attitude regarding the offense and sentence.

(6) The inmate’s record of adjustment and misconduct including any record of escape from a department facility, IS, a mental health facility, a local jail or any other confinement facility, or absconding from probation, parole, or extended supervision.

(7) The length of time the inmate has been in a particular custody classification and overall time served during the current period of incarceration.

(8) The inmate's medical and clinical needs, including physical or psychological treatment and observation.

(9) The risk to a victim, witness, the general public or the inmate of placing the inmate in the community where the offense was committed or where the institution is located. In determining this risk, the department may consider the general public's perception of the offense and the inmate as evidenced by statements of elected officials, judges, sheriffs, district attorneys, a victim, or a witness.

(10) The inmate's performance or refusal to participate in programs or treatment.

(11) A pending legal process, notification or detainer.

(12) Parole commission actions and stated expectations, and in the absence of any stated expectations, the likelihood of a release during the review period.

DOC 302.21 Sentence computation. (1) TIMELINESS IN COMPUTING DATES AND INFORMING INMATES. (a) Within 10 working days after a person arrives at a correctional institution following sentencing or after an inmate returns from escape, the registrar shall compute the inmate's parole eligibility date, projected mandatory release date and projected discharge date, and shall inform the inmate in writing of these dates.

(b) Within a reasonable time after an inmate arrives at a correctional institution following revocation of probation, discretionary parole or mandatory release parole, the registrar shall inform the inmate in writing of the inmate's parole eligibility date, projected mandatory release date and projected discharge date.

(c) Within a reasonable time after the registrar becomes aware of any change in an inmate's parole eligibility date, projected mandatory release date or projected discharge date, the registrar shall inform the inmate in writing of that change. For an inmate not covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528, the projected mandatory release date may change due to loss of good time or failure to earn extra good time. For an inmate who, on or after June 1, 1984, committed the crime for which he or she was sentenced and for other inmates who chose to have 1983 Wis. Act 528 apply to them, the mandatory release date may be extended as a penalty for misconduct under ch. DOC 303.

(2) DETERMINATION OF PAROLE ELIGIBILITY DATE. (a) Except for an inmate serving a life sentence and as otherwise specified in chs. DOC 302 to 326, an inmate who committed a crime before November 3, 1983, shall be eligible for parole when one-half of the minimum sentence for the crime for which the person was convicted less all credit to which the inmate is entitled pursuant to s. 973.155, Stats., has been served. An inmate who committed a crime on or after November 3, 1983, shall be eligible for parole when 25% of the sentence imposed, or 6 months, whichever is greater, less all credit to which the inmate is entitled pursuant to s. 973.155, Stats., has been served. However, in no case may any inmate be eligible for parole before 60 days has elapsed from the date of the inmate's arrival at the institution. If an inmate was sentenced for more than one crime, he or she shall be eligible for parole on each sentence in order to be considered for parole. If an inmate has received a consecutive sentence, the inmate may not begin serving the consecutive sentence for purposes of parole eligibility until the person has become eligible for parole on the first sentence.

(b) 1. An inmate serving a life sentence who is not covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528 is eligible for parole after serving 11 years and 3 months, a period which may be extended for misconduct by forfeiture of good time under ch. DOC 303.

2. An inmate serving a life sentence who is covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528 is eligible for parole after serving 13 years and 4 months, a period which may be extended for misconduct under ch. DOC 303.

(3) DETERMINATION OF PROJECTED MANDATORY RELEASE DATE.

(a) For an inmate not covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528:

1. The projected mandatory release date is the date on which the inmate is to be released from the institution, if not granted parole earlier, and provided that the inmate earns all the statutory and extra good time for which he or she is eligible unless good time is waived or forfeited in accordance with this chapter and ch. DOC 303;

2. The projected mandatory release date shall be the maximum term to which the inmate was sentenced, reduced by any sentence credit granted pursuant to s. 973.155, Stats., and by the statutory and extra good time the inmate may earn during the sentence. Statutory good time shall be credited from the beginning date of the inmate's sentence. Extra good time shall be credited beginning on the date following the inmate's date of arrival at the institution;

3. The registrar, in determining the projected mandatory release date of an inmate who is serving consecutive sentences for crimes which occurred before the person was committed under any of the sentences, shall treat the sentences as one continuous sentence for the purposes of good time credit; and

4. The registrar, in determining the projected mandatory release date of an inmate who is serving a consecutive sentence for a crime which was committed while the person was serving another sentence or on parole, shall treat the second sentence as a separate sentence. Accordingly, statutory good time shall be computed on the second sentence as if it were a first sentence.

(b) For an inmate covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528:

1. The projected mandatory release date is the date on which the inmate is to be released from the institution, if not granted parole earlier, unless that date is extended pursuant to s. DOC 303.72 for violation of a disciplinary rule or the inmate waives entitlement to mandatory release in accordance with this chapter;

2. The projected mandatory release date shall be two-thirds the maximum term to which the inmate was sentenced, reduced by any sentence credit granted pursuant to s. 973.155, Stats. Inmates whose crimes were committed before June 1, 1984, but who chose to have 1983 Wis. Act 528 apply to them shall have their mandatory release dates extended by prior forfeitures of statutory and extra good time for misconduct in the institution or on parole.

Inmates covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528 do not earn statutory or extra good time; and

3. The registrar, in determining the projected mandatory release date of an inmate who is serving consecutive sentences, shall treat all consecutive sentences, no matter when the crimes were committed, as one continuous sentence.

(c) For any inmate:

1. The registrar, in determining the projected mandatory release date of an inmate serving concurrent sentences imposed at the same time, shall consider the longer sentence as controlling. Each sentence shall begin on the date the sentence is imposed, less any sentence credit granted pursuant to s. 973.155, Stats.; and

2. The registrar, in determining the projected mandatory release date of an inmate serving concurrent sentences imposed at different times, shall treat each sentence as beginning on the date that it was imposed, less any sentence credit granted to s. 973.155, Stats.

DOC 302.22 Ambiguity in sentence. If a registrar is uncertain as to the terms of a sentence imposed on a resident, the registrar shall notify the court of the uncertainty in writing. The maximum discharge date shall be extended by the amount of time tolled.

Note: Section DOC 331.15 was repealed by CR 10-125 eff. 7-1-13.

(6) A department of administration hearing examiner may require a discretionary parole violator to serve forfeited statutory and extra good time. The amount of good time forfeited may not exceed the good time earned as of the date of violation. The hearing examiner may allow a discretionary parole violator to earn good time on the amount forfeited. DOC 302.30 Waiver of good time or entitlement to mandatory release. (1) In this section “good time” means credit which diminishes an inmate’s period of incarceration, and includes both statutory good time, under s. 53.11, 1981 Stats., which is credit for good conduct and performing all required duties, and extra good time, which is credit for diligence and which is earned according to the conditions and procedures set forth in s. DOC 302.27. Inmates who committed crimes before June 1, 1984, and did not choose to have 1983 Wis. Act 528 apply to them earn good time.

(2) An inmate or a person on mandatory release may waive good time and an inmate or person on mandatory release who committed an offense on or after June 1, 1984, or who makes a written request to the department pursuant to section 29 of 1983 Wis. (3) The inmate or person on mandatory release who wants to waive good time or mandatory release shall do this in accordance with the following conditions and procedures:

(b) Not less than 15 days and not more than 180 days of good time may be waived at one time, and similarly a waiver may not result in extending the mandatory release date for less than 15 days or more than 180 days, except that a person on mandatory release may waive 360 days of good time at one time;

(c) Good time or mandatory release that is waived shall not be reinstated, except for good cause;

(b) An inmate wants to complete an educational or vocational program begun in the correctional facility;

DOC 302.31 Extra good time for inmates not covered by 1983 Wis. Act 528. (1) This section does not apply to inmates who committed crimes on or after June 1, 1984, and to other inmates who chose to have 1983 Wis. Act 528 apply to them.

(2) CONDITIONS FOR EARNING CREDIT. In order to provide an incentive to inmates in approved work and study programs to develop and reinforce positive behavior, and to promote institutional order, an inmate shall earn extra good time credit if he or she is:

(a) Assigned to a vocational, job, school, or program assignment under ch. DOC 302 and surpasses the general average in diligence in labor or study for that assignment (see sub. (4));

(b) Involuntarily unassigned and:

1. His or her last assignment was terminated because of medical or psychological problems caused or aggravated by the assignment, which were verified by the clinical staff and which made it difficult or impossible to perform in the assignment, and the appropriate staff member was notified within 2 working days after termination of the last assignment, of the inmate’s willingness to work at another assignment consistent with his or her abilities; or

2. Is eligible for an assignment but has not been offered one by the program review committee (PRC) under ch. DOC 302;

(c) In administrative confinement under ch. DOC 308 and was earning extra good time credit in his or her status immediately prior to this confinement;

(d) In observation under ch. DOC 311 and was earning extra good time credit in his or her status immediately prior to this confinement;

(e) In temporary lockup (TLU) under ch. DOC 303 and was earning extra good time credit in his or her prior status; or in TLU immediately after being in program adjustment, or control segregation under ch. DOC 303, and he or she was earning extra good time credit in the prior nonsegregation status. If the inmate's status in TLU is a result of a disciplinary charge, he or she may earn extra good time credit until the time of the disposition of the charge. If found innocent, the inmate may continue to earn extra good time credit. If found guilty, the inmate shall not thereafter be eligible to earn extra good time credit until he or she leaves segregation;

(f) Participating in a correspondence course approved for study assignment by the PRC;

(g) Out of the institution for a court appearance or dental or medical appointment and he or she was earning extra good time credit in the status immediately prior to leaving the institution for such matters;

(h) In sick cell status and he or she was earning extra good time credit in the status immediately prior to this status; or

(i) In a hospital placement (including those inmates transferred to mental health or medical facilities) and was earning extra good time credit in the status immediately prior to this status.

(3) CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH EXTRA GOOD TIME CREDIT SHALL NOT BE EARNED. An inmate shall not earn extra good time credit if the conditions under sub. (1) are not satisfied or if he or she:

- (a) Is voluntarily unassigned;
- (b) Is involuntarily unassigned for reasons other than those stated under sub. (2) (b), for instance, to simply avoid work or study;
- (c) Is in adjustment segregation;
- (d) Is in program segregation;
- (e) Is in control segregation;
- (f) Refuses to accept a work or study assignment offered by the PRC; or
- (g) Is in voluntary confinement — unless the inmate requested placement in this status upon the recommendation of, or with approval of the security director for the purpose of ensuring the inmate's safety and the inmate was earning extra good time prior to such placement.

(4) CRITERIA FOR AWARDED EXTRA GOOD TIME CREDIT. The department shall establish reasonably uniform written criteria that shall be used for the awarding of extra good time credit for all vocational, job, school, and program assignments with similar necessary skills and responsibilities within all adult correctional facilities.

(a) To the extent that is necessary because of the unique requirements of a vocational, job, school or programming assignment each supervisor shall establish additional reasonable criteria consistent with the necessary skills and responsibilities of that assignment that shall be used to evaluate an inmate's diligence in that assignment for the purpose of awarding extra good time credit.

(b) The criteria under sub. (3) or (4) shall be the only criteria used in the determination of whether to award credit and shall state what is meant by "the general average in diligence in labor or study" for that assignment.

(c) If an inmate is not capable of performing in his or her assignment at the level of "the general average in diligence," for instance, because of poor dexterity skills or mental, developmental, or physical disabilities that have been confirmed through clinical testing, the supervisor shall develop new reasonable criteria for evaluation consistent with the skills and responsibilities of that assignment and the special disabilities of the inmate, if the inmate, his or her social worker, and supervisor agree that a change of assignment is unnecessary or undesirable.

(d) The criteria for evaluating inmate diligence in performance for each assignment and any special criteria developed pursuant to par. (c) shall be available to inmates prior to commencement of the assignment and to the staff upon request.

(5) PERFORMANCE EVALUATIONS. (a) Each supervisor shall make a written evaluation of the inmate's performance under the following circumstances;

- 1. When it is required under s. DOC 309.55;
- 2. If the supervisor does not recommend extra good time credit for an inmate for a particular month based on the inmate's performance; or
- 3. The inmate's social worker requests a written performance evaluation.

(b) The written evaluation under par. (a) shall indicate whether or not extra good time credit is recommended for an inmate. If extra good time is not recommended for a particular month, the reasons for this decision shall be noted on the evaluation.

(c) If extra good time credit is not recommended for an inmate for a particular month, he or she shall receive written notice of the decision from the supervisor, including the reasons for it, within 5 working days of the decision.

(d) An inmate may appeal a decision under sub. (4) to his or her supervisor within 5 days of receipt of notice. The supervisor shall have the authority to amend his or her earlier decision in favor of the inmate within 5 working days of the appeal. If amended, the registrar and the inmate shall receive written notification of the change and the reasons for it. Failure by the supervisor to render a decision within the allowed time shall signify an affirmation of the earlier decision, and the inmate shall be notified of this.

(e) If the supervisor fails to amend his or her earlier decision within the time allowed, the inmate may appeal to the superintendent within 5 working days after that time. If the superintendent fails to render a decision within 5 working days after the appeal, the decision of the supervisor under sub. (10) is affirmed, and the inmate shall be notified of this.

Note: There is no DOC 302.31 (10).

(f) Any question regarding an inmate's eligibility for credit under sub. (1) or (2) shall be referred to the superintendent for resolution.

(6) SCHEDULE OF GOOD TIME CREDIT. An inmate shall earn extra good time credit as follows:

Extra good time credit earned for a calendar month (in days)	Cumulative number of days in a calendar month in a status eligible for credit	Cumulative number of days in a calendar month in a status not entitling inmate to credit
0	0	30
1	6	24
2	12	18
3	18	12
4	24	6
5	30	0

(a) If an inmate is entitled to extra good time for any fraction of a calendar day, that whole day shall be credited.

(b) An inmate shall earn fractions of one day of extra good time for each day in a status entitling the inmate to credit.

(3) ELIGIBILITY FOR SPECIAL ACTION RELEASE CONSIDERATION. (a) To be eligible for special action release consideration, an inmate:

1. Shall be parole-eligible under s. 304.06, Stats., and ch. PAC 1;

2. Shall have served a minimum of 6 months in the Wisconsin state prison system;

3. May not have been granted a special action release previously, if the inmate is currently serving time on a new criminal conviction;

4. May never have had a felony or misdemeanor conviction for an assaultive crime;

5. May not have a known history of assaultive conduct inside or outside of a correctional institution, except that an inmate who has a known history of assaultive conduct that did not result in a conviction may be considered for special action release if one of the following applies:

a. The conduct occurred more than 5 years prior to SAR review by the social worker under sub. (4) (a) 1.;

b. The inmate acted in self-defense or defense of property;

c. The inmate is to be released to a structured living arrangement such as a halfway house;

d. The inmate’s conduct was an isolated incident not likely to be repeated; or

e. The inmate’s age or physical condition makes repeat of the assaultive conduct unlikely;

6. Shall agree to intensive supervision and any other special conditions the secretary under sub. (7) (a) and (c) or the parole agent under sub. (7) (b) and (c) may impose;

7. Shall have a parole plan, investigated by the agent of record; and

8. If he or she is to be supervised in another state, shall be accepted for supervision by that other state.

(b) No special action release may be granted more than 12 months prior to the inmate’s mandatory release date.

(c) An inmate in an affected correctional institution may be eligible for SAR consideration without meeting the criteria under pars. (a) 3., 4., 5. and (b) if:

1. The department is subject to a court order or consent decree entered on or prior to August 24, 1988, which imposes a maximum population capacity for or otherwise requires inmate releases from a correctional institution;

2. The inmate is not currently serving time on a felony or misdemeanor conviction for an assaultive crime;

3. The institution social worker or agent of record has reason to believe the inmate will be able to maintain himself or herself in society without engaging in assaultive activity; and

4. The inmate is not granted a special action release more than 24 months prior to the inmate’s mandatory release date.

(d) An inmate who has an active detainer is eligible for SAR consideration without meeting the criteria under par. (a) if the detainer concerns a sentence imposed in another jurisdiction and the remainder of that sentence is equal to or longer than the remainder of the Wisconsin sentence. In this paragraph, “active” means that the jurisdiction issuing the detainer intends to obtain custody of the inmate immediately upon release.

(e) An inmate may waive eligibility for SAR consideration at any time by notifying the institution social worker, except that an inmate who has an active detainer may not waive eligibility for SAR consideration. To reestablish eligibility following a waiver, the inmate shall notify the institution social worker that the inmate no longer waives eligibility for SAR consideration.

(4) PROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL FOR SAR CONSIDERATION. (a) Social worker responsibilities. 1. Social workers shall review inmate files assigned to them to identify inmates who may be eligible for SAR consideration. The social worker may contact the agent of record to obtain further information concerning an inmate’s eligibility.

2. If an inmate appears to be eligible for SAR consideration, the social worker in consultation with the inmate shall develop a parole plan which considers the inmate’s institutional conduct, the inmate’s resources and plans for the inmate’s residence and job placement upon release.

3. The social worker shall send a copy of the parole plan to the agent of record, the SAR coordinator and the social worker’s supervisor.

4. The department shall notify in writing the office of the district attorney which prosecuted the inmate, the court which sentenced the inmate and the victim of the crime committed by the inmate, if the victim submits a card under s. 304.06 (1) (f), Stats., that the inmate is being considered for SAR. The notice shall advise the district attorney, court and the victim that they are permitted to submit written comments regarding the proposed release, which will be placed in the special action release record developed by the SAR coordinator under par. (c) 1. for the secretary. The notice shall be mailed at least 21 days before the secretary under sub. (5) makes a decision concerning the release of the inmate.

(b) Agent responsibilities. 1. Upon receipt of the parole plan from the social worker, the agent shall carry out an investigation to determine if the plan is appropriate and shall include in that investigation assessments of the inmate's proposed residence, employment and community treatment plans.

2. If the plan is not appropriate, the agent shall suggest alternatives to the inmate and social worker and attempt to develop an acceptable plan in consultation with the inmate and social worker.

3. The agent shall write a report which shall include the results of the investigation under subs. 1. and 2. The report shall address probable reaction to the inmate in the community where the inmate proposes to reside and shall contain other relevant information that is not available to the institution.

4. The agent shall send a copy of the report under subd. 3. to the SAR coordinator.

(c) SAR coordinator responsibilities. 1. The SAR coordinator shall assemble all relevant documents on an inmate, including the inmate's parole plan, the agent's report, any comments received from the district attorney's office, judge or victim, a summary of the inmate's arrests and convictions, reasons why the parole commission denied parole, if applicable, and any other relevant information requested by the secretary.

2. The SAR coordinator shall submit the relevant information to the secretary for consideration.

(5) DECISION. (a) After reviewing the information about the inmate submitted by the SAR coordinator, the secretary shall decide whether to grant or deny an SAR. The secretary may consider the following factors in deciding whether to grant or deny an SAR:

1. Parole eligibility;
2. The inmate's criminal record, the nature of the offense of which the inmate was convicted and any known history of assaultive conduct outside a correctional institution;
3. Institutional adjustment;
4. Adequacy of the parole plan;
5. Population pressures;
6. Risk to the public safety; and
7. Any other factors which relate to whether the inmate will be able to comply with the rules of parole and maintain himself or herself in open society without engaging in assaultive or any other criminal activity.

(b) The secretary's decision is final.

(c) If the SAR is granted, the secretary may impose in writing any special conditions that are appropriate.

(d) The institution where the inmate is incarcerated shall inform the inmate of the decision to grant or deny an SAR and, if granted, of any conditions imposed on the inmate's release.

(6) NOTIFICATION. Before the inmate is released, the department shall notify the municipal police department and the county sheriff for the area where the inmate plans to reside and shall notify the victim of the crime committed by the inmate, if the victim submits a card under s. 304.06 (1) (f), Stats., and if the victim can be found.

(7) CONDITIONS. (a) The conditions that the secretary may impose under sub. (5) (c) include but are not limited to the following:

1. A period of intensive supervision which requires the former inmate to report to the agent on the first day of release and to contact the agent in person at least once a week for a minimum of 90 days, and which requires the agent to visit the former inmate's place of residence or employment once a month during the period of intensive supervision;
2. Restrictions on residence;
3. Restrictions on travel and local movement;
4. Restrictions on associations;

5. Restrictions on possessions;

6. Restrictions on consumption of drugs and alcohol;

10. Electronic monitoring; and

11. Any other specific condition to achieve the purpose of maintaining the former inmate in open society without engaging in criminal activity.

(b) In addition to the rules provided under ch. DOC 328, the agent may develop additional written rules and specific conditions for the new client's parole supervision to achieve the goals and objectives of supervision under ch. DOC 328.

(c) The secretary may modify the conditions of the former inmate's special action release at any time until discharge from supervision, and the agent may modify the rules and specific conditions of the new client's parole supervision at any time until discharge from supervision.

(d) A client released under special action release who violates the rules or conditions of his or her supervision is subject to revocation under ch. DOC 331 procedures.
