Tax 7.11 Refunds on sale of beer to armed forces. The state tax paid on fermented malt beverages sold to the armed forces of the United States may be refunded to the licensed Wisconsin brewery, bottler or wholesaler making the sale under the following conditions and provisions:

All fermented malt beverages sold in the state of Wisconsin shall be labeled in accordance with the provisions of federal regulation No. 7, now in effect or as subsequently amended, relating to the labeling and advertising of malt beverages, issued by the federal alcohol administration, except that, the standard of "ale" provision contained in said federal regulation No. 7 shall not be applicable in the state of Wisconsin.

Tax 7.22 Tied house law; volume and quantity discounts. Sec. 66.054 (4), Wis. Stats., is interpreted to forbid the giving of products of the industry or of volume discounts to class "B" licensees. Volume discounts are defined as discounts, rebates, or refunds based upon the volume of the licensee's purchases from a brewer, bottler or wholesaler over a period of time or a series of transactions. Discounts are permissible only when based upon the quantity of the product purchased in a single transaction, a single delivery, and a single invoice. Such permissible discounts must be available to all class "B" licensees.
