10 11.395 Contributions limited during certain periods. (1) No individual 11 who is a candidate for a partisan state office and who receives a contribution may 12 accept the contribution if the contribution is made during the period commencing on 13 the first Monday in January of each odd-numbered year and ending with the date
14 of enactment of the biennial budget act. No personal campaign committee or support

1 committee authorized under s. 11.05 (3) (p) of an individual who is prohibited from 2 accepting a contribution under this section may accept a contribution that the 3 individual is prohibited from accepting.

4 (2) This section does not apply to a contribution accepted by:

5 (a) An individual who is a candidate for the office of district attorney or the 6 personal campaign committee of such an individual or the support committee of such 7 an individual authorized under s. 11.05 (3) (p).

8 (b) A candidate for a partisan state office, or the personal campaign committee 9 of such a candidate, which is accepted after the day of an election at which the 10 candidate's name appeared on the ballot and in which the candidate was elected or 11 defeated, for the purpose of retiring obligations incurred by the candidate or 12 committee in relation to that election, for so long as the campaign of the candidate 13 continues under s. 11.26 (17) (d) provided that the cash balance in the campaign
14 depository account of the candidate or committee does not exceed $500 at the time 15 that the contribution is accepted.

16 (c) A candidate for a partisan state office at a special election, or to the personal 17 campaign committee of such a candidate, during the period commencing on the date 18 that the special election is ordered and ending on the date of the special election.”.
