

ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE AMENDMENT 1,
TO 1995 ASSEMBLY BILL 622

February 20, 1996 – Offered by COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY.

1 AN ACT to create 767.24 (7m) and 767.51 (3r) of the statutes; relating to:
2 requiring a parent to provide medical and medical history information in 3 certain actions affecting the family.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

4 SECTION 1. 767.24 (7m) of the statutes is created to read:

5 767.24 (7m) MEDICAL AND MEDICAL HISTORY INFORMATION. (a) In making an order 6 of legal custody, the court shall require a parent who is not granted legal custody of 7 a child to provide to the court medical and medical history information that is known
8 to the parent. If the court orders joint legal custody, the court shall require each 9 parent to provide to the court medical and medical history information that is known 10 to the parent. The information provided shall include all of the following:

11 1. The known medical history of the parent providing the information, 12 including specific information about stillbirths or congenital anomalies in the 13 parent's family, and the medical histories, if known, of the parents and siblings of the 14 parent and any sibling of the child who is a child of the parent, except that medical

1 history information need not be provided for a sibling of the child if the parent or
2 other person who is granted legal custody of the child also has legal custody,
3 including joint legal custody, of that sibling.

4 2. A report of any medical examination that the parent providing the 5 information had within one year before the date of the order.

6 (b) Upon the joint written request of a physician and a parent or other person 7 with legal custody of the child, the court shall release the information provided under 8 par. (a) to a physician designated in the request. The physician joining in the request
9 need not be the same physician designated in the request. The physician to whom 10 the information is released shall keep the information confidential, but may release
11 to the parent or other person with legal custody who made the request under this 12 paragraph only that portion of the information that the physician determines is 13 relevant to the child's medical condition.

14 SECTION 2. 767.51 (3r) of the statutes is created to read:

15 767.51 (3r) (a) In making an order of legal custody under sub. (3), the court 16 shall require a parent who is not granted legal custody to provide to the court medical 17 and medical history information that is known to the parent. If the court orders joint 18 legal custody, the court shall require each parent to provide to the court medical and 19 medical history information that is known to the parent. The information provided 20 shall include all of the following:

21 1. The known medical history of the parent providing the information, 22 including specific information about stillbirths or congenital anomalies in the 23 parent's family, and the medical histories, if known, of the parents and siblings of the 24 parent and any sibling of the child who is a child of the parent, except that medical 25 history information need not be provided for a sibling of the child if the parent or

1 other person who is granted legal custody of the child also has legal custody,
2 including joint legal custody, of that sibling.

3 2. A report of any medical examination that the parent providing the 4 information had within one year before the date of the judgment or order.

5 (b) Upon the joint written request of a physician and a parent or other person 6 with legal custody of the child, the court shall release the information provided under
7 par. (a) to a physician designated in the request. The physician joining in the request
8 need not be the same physician designated in the request. The physician to whom 9 the information is released shall keep the information confidential, but may release
10 to the parent or other person with legal custody who made the request under this 11 paragraph only that portion of the information that the physician determines is 12 relevant to the child's medical condition.

13 (END)