5 “(d) The requirement for a local governmental unit to use the 6 qualifications-based selection process for hiring a consultant, as described under 7 sub. (2), does not apply to a project if all of the following apply:

8 1. The local governmental unit submits written notification to the department 9 of administration that it intends to hire a consultant without using the 10 qualifications-based selection process, and the notification describes the method the 11 local governmental unit intends to use to hire the consultant.

1 2. The notification contains the local governmental unit’s reasons why it 2 believes the method it intends to use to hire the consultant would better serve the 3 public interest than if it used the qualifications-based selection process.

4 3. Based on the written notification that it receives from the local governmental 5 unit, the department of administration issues a written finding that the local 6 governmental unit has demonstrated that a major factor in the method it intends to 7 use to hire the consultant is the qualifications of the consultant, and that the local 8 governmental unit does not intend to use a process that is based only on cost.

9 4. The local governmental unit has not submitted the notification described in 10 subd. 1. more than twice during any 12-month period.”.
