Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This substitute amendment makes changes to the laws in this state related to the federal Achieving a Better Life Experience Act of 2014. Under federal law, an eligible resident of this state may participate in a qualified ABLE program of another state and establish an ABLE account. The proceeds of an ABLE account may be used to pay for qualified expenses, such as education, housing, and transportation costs, for a beneficiary who is an individual with disabilities, as defined under federal law.

2015 Wisconsin Act 55, the state budget bill, authorized the creation of ABLE accounts in this state. Generally, contributions to such an account could be subtracted from the contributor's federal adjusted gross income in the calculation of the taxpayer's Wisconsin taxes. The substitute amendment makes significant changes to current law and does all of the following:

1. Creates an ABLE savings program board to perform certain functions, including a) ensuring that the ABLE savings program meets the requirements of a qualified ABLE program under the Internal Revenue Code and all other legal requirements applicable to the program; b) establishing investment guidelines for ABLE savings accounts; and c) seeking rulings and guidance from federal agencies to ensure the proper implementation and administration of the ABLE savings program.

2. Expands the types of financial institutions at which an individual may establish an ABLE savings account to include investment companies, investment trusts, trust companies, insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on a banking or insurance business. Current law limits those institutions to banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions.

3. Provides that the owner and beneficiary of an ABLE savings account are the same person. Current law provides that when the beneficiary is a minor or is otherwise incapable of handling his or her financial affairs, the account owner is the beneficiary's parent or guardian.

4. Requires the Department of Administration to select a nongovernmental person as a vendor to manage the ABLE savings program and requires the vendor to, among other things, reimburse the state for all administrative costs that the state incurs for the program.

5. Establishes a separate, nonlapsible ABLE savings program trust fund, consisting of all revenues from enrollment fees for contributions to ABLE savings accounts and from distributions and fees paid by the vendor of the program.

6. Creates a general purpose revenue appropriation to DOA for the administrative expenses of the ABLE savings program, appropriates $500,000 in fiscal year 2016-17 for that appropriation, authorizes 2.0 full-time equivalent positions for DOA for the purpose of administering that program, and requires repayment to the general fund from the ABLE savings program trust fund of the amount expended from that appropriation when the secretary of administration determines that moneys in the trust fund are sufficient to make that repayment.

Also under the substitute amendment, ABLE accounts in this state and contributions to another state's ABLE account continue to be tax-advantaged.
