Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This substitute amendment differs from 2015 Senate Bill 285 (the bill) as follows:

1. This substitute amendment removes the provision in the bill that prohibits the director of the Bureau of Merit Recruitment and Selection (bureau) in the Division of Personnel Management (DPM) in the Department of Administration (DOA) from asking an applicant on an application, or otherwise, to supply information about the applicant's conviction record before the applicant is certified for a position.

2. This substitute amendment changes the general probationary period for all original and promotional appointments to permanent and seasonal positions in the classified service and the probationary period for employees in supervisory or management positions to one year with a possible extension of up to 12 additional months.

3. This substitute amendment eliminates the requirement under current law that certain probationary and limited term employees must be terminated before permanent classified employees may be laid off.

4. This substitute amendment requires the director of the bureau to establish standards for what constitutes a serious violation of the code of ethics for the purpose of determining whether it is just cause to take an adverse employment action against an employee without imposing progressive discipline.

5. This substitute amendment requires the standards for progressive discipline plans established by the administrator of DPM to allow an appointing authority to accelerate progressive discipline in certain circumstances.

6. This substitute amendment provides a preference for veterans and certain spouses of veterans in the civil service hiring process by requiring the director of the bureau to add a certain number of veterans and spouses of veterans to a certification list for a classified position. This preference replaces the requirement in the bill that an appointing authority offer an interview to a veteran or spouse of a veteran who is included on a certification list for a classified position.

7. Under this substitute amendment, the DOA secretary is not required to develop a plan to assume responsibility for services related to human resources for the technical college system board.

8. This substitute amendment requires the DOA secretary to submit plans for assuming responsibility for services related to human resources for agencies in the executive branch and for assuming responsibility for payroll services, finance services, budget and procurement functions, and information technology services for certain state agencies and boards to the Joint Committee on Finance by March 1, 2017, for implementation beginning July 1, 2017. Under current law, the DOA secretary is required to submit a plan for assuming responsibility for services related to human resources, payroll services, finance services, budget and procurement functions, and information technology services for certain state agencies and boards to the Joint Committee on Finance by March 1, 2016, for implementation beginning July 1, 2016.
