Whereas, in 1971, the U.S. Congress designated August 26 as Women's Equality Day to commemorate the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution; and

Whereas, since 1920, women have made tremendous gains in society, including the right to vote, the right to be free from discrimination in employment, and the right to have guaranteed equal access to education, including sports; and

Whereas, on August 26, 2003, Women's Equality Day and the anniversary of the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment, the women and men who have worked tirelessly to secure equality for women are to be commended for what they have achieved thus far and supported in their continued efforts to champion the rights of women; now, therefore, be it
