2017 ASSEMBLY BILL 740

Generally, current law requires the Department of Transportation (DOT) to charge a $62 fee, as well as a $7.50 supplemental title fee, for a certificate of title after title to a vehicle has transferred to a new owner. However, current law requires DOT to waive the $7.50 supplemental title fee when a decedent's interest in a vehicle is transferred to his or her surviving spouse or domestic partner.

Assembly Bill 740 requires DOT to waive the $62 fee when a decedent's interest in a vehicle is transferred to the decedent's surviving spouse.

ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE AMENDMENT 1

Assembly Substitute Amendment 1 requires DOT to waive the $62 fee when a decedent's interest in a vehicle is transferred to the decedent's surviving spouse or domestic partner.
