

1997 SENATE BILL 200

May 7, 1997 - Introduced by Senators RISSER, MOEN, COWLES, PLACHE, SCHULTZ, RUDE, ROESSLER, HUELSMAN and WIRCH, cosponsored by Representatives GOETSCH, BAUMGART, ROBSON, NOTESTEIN, RYBA, LADWIG, LORGE, BOYLE, KREUSER, L. YOUNG, VANDER LOOP, KEDZIE, GROTHMAN, GUNDERSON, HUBER, KAUFERT, HAHN, KELSO, PLALE and BALDWIN. Referred to Committee on Economic Development, Housing and Government Operations.

1     AN ACT to create 16.72 (8) of the statutes; relating to: stationery utilized by
2             state agencies for outside correspondence.

---

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill directs the department of administration to ensure that each state agency includes on its stationery utilized for correspondence outside the agency at least one telephone number where the agency may be contacted, and at least one facsimile transmission (fax) number for the agency, if the agency has such a number. The bill also provides that an agency which, on the day the bill becomes law, has in its possession or on order stationery that is not in compliance with this requirement may continue to use that stationery until its supply is exhausted.

---

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3             SECTION 1. 16.72 (8) of the statutes is created to read:
4             16.72 (8) The department shall ensure that every agency includes on all
5             stationery utilized by the agency for correspondence outside the agency at least one
6             telephone number where the agency may be contacted, and at least one facsimile
7             transmission number for the agency, if the agency has such a number.

