Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits various conduct related to prostitution. This bill makes several changes in the laws relating to prostitution. Specifically, current law and the changes that the bill makes are as follows:

The offense of prostitution

Under current law, the offense of prostitution includes the following: 1) engaging in, offering to engage in or requesting another to engage in sexual intercourse for anything of value; 2) engaging in, offering to engage in or requesting another to engage in certain acts of sexual contact or sexual gratification for anything of value; and 3) masturbating another, offering to masturbate another or requesting to be masturbated by another for anything of value. A person who is found guilty of prostitution may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both.

This bill provides that a person is guilty of prostitution if he or she masturbates himself or herself in the presence of another person at the request of that other person or offers to masturbate himself or herself in the presence of another person for anything of value.

ASSEMBLY BILL 268Other offenses related to prostitution

In addition to prohibiting prostitution, current law prohibits certain conduct relating to prostitution. Specifically, current law prohibits patronizing prostitutes, soliciting prostitutes (commanding, encouraging or requesting a person to practice prostitution on an ongoing basis), pandering (assisting a person in engaging a prostitute) and keeping a place of prostitution. A person who is found guilty of patronizing a prostitute may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both. A person who is found guilty of soliciting prostitutes or keeping a place of prostitution may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years or both, if the offense occurs before December 31, 1999, or may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than ten years or both, if the offense occurs on or after December 31, 1999. A person who is found guilty of pandering may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both, except that if he or she received compensation from the earnings of the prostitute he or she may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than ten years or both, if the offense occurs before December 31, 1999, or may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than 15 years or both, if the offense occurs on or after December 31, 1999.

This bill prohibits a person from doing any of the following, if they are done with the intent to engage in prostitution, to patronize prostitutes, to solicit prostitutes or to pander: 1) exposing or offering to expose or requesting another to expose his or her intimate parts; and 2) committing or offering to commit or requesting another to commit an act of sexual contact. A person who violates this prohibition may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than nine months or both.

Disposition of prostitution-related cases

The bill makes several changes relating to the disposition of cases of persons arrested for or convicted of offenses relating to prostitution. Specifically, the bill provides that when a person convicted of an offense relating to prostitution is released from prison on parole or extended supervision, the person may be required as a condition of parole or extended supervision to avoid the premises where the offense occurred or the geographic area where the offense occurred or both.

Finally, the bill provides for a deferred prosecution program for certain persons accused of or charged with prostitution, patronizing prostitutes, pandering (if the person did not receive compensation from the prostitute's earnings), or acts done with the intent to engage in prostitution, to patronize prostitutes, to solicit prostitutes or to pander. Under the deferred prosecution program, the accused or charged person must agree to abide by certain conditions, including participation in a program designed to educate offenders about the effect of prostitution on the community and its neighborhoods, if such a program is offered by a community organization in the community in which the person lives or in which the violation occurred and if the person has the financial ability to pay any fee required to participate in the program. If the person satisfies the conditions of the deferred prosecution, the case against him or her is not prosecuted; but if he or she fails to satisfy the conditions, the case against him or her may be prosecuted.
