Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires the department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection (DATCP) to establish a nonsolicitation directory that includes listings for residential telephone customers who do not wish to receive telephone solicitations. The bill requires DATCP to promulgate rules establishing requirements and procedures for a residential customer to request a listing in the directory. DATCP must provide copies of the directory to the public free of charge and must also make the directory available to the public in a manner that facilitates public access to the directory. The bill prohibits a telephone solicitor from making a telephone solicitation to a residential customer if the directory that is available to the public at the time of solicitation includes a listing for the customer.

This bill also requires DATCP to promulgate rules that require a telephone solicitor to register annually with DATCP and pay an annual registration fee. The amount of the fee must be based on the cost for DATCP to establish and maintain the nonsolicitation directory. The bill prohibits a telephone solicitor that is not registered from requiring an employe to make a telephone solicitation to a person in this state.

A telephone solicitor who violates the bill's prohibitions is subject to a forfeiture of up to $10,000. A telephone solicitor is also subject to this forfeiture amount if the telephone solicitor requires an employe to violate a provision under current law that prohibits a person from using an electronically prerecorded message in a telephone solicitation without the consent of the person called.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
