Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, members of authorized special groups may obtain special distinguishing registration plates for certain vehicles registered with the department of transportation (DOT). Special plates may be obtained for automobiles, station wagons, motor homes and certain dual purpose motor homes, farm trucks and dual purpose farm trucks that are owned or leased by special group members. A fee, in addition to the regular registration fee for the particular kind of vehicle, is assessed for the issuance or reissuance of most special plates.

Members of authorized special groups related to certain campuses of the University of Wisconsin (UW) System or to the support of endangered or threatened species pay an additional annual fee as a tax deductible contribution to the UW System or to the endangered resources program administered by the department of natural resources.

This bill establishes an authorized special group for persons interested in obtaining special distinguishing registration plates expressing their support of the Green Bay Packers, a professional football team. Special group plates related to the Green Bay Packers may not be issued by DOT unless any approvals that are required for use of an applicable logo, trademark, trade name or commercial symbol designating the team have been obtained.

In addition to the regular vehicle registration fee, the special group members are required to pay a $15 fee for issuance or reissuance of the special plates and an additional $25 annual fee as a tax deductible contribution that, after payment of certain data processing and licensing fee costs, provides funds in equal amounts to D.A.R.E. Wisconsin, Ltd., a nonprofit corporation, for programs and activities relating to drug abuse resistance education and for the payment of marketing costs relating to the special group plates, to Boys and Girls Clubs of Wisconsin, to UW Children's Hospital and Clinics and to Children's Hospital of Wisconsin, Inc. Under the bill, D.A.R.E. Wisconsin, Ltd., is required to annually submit an audited financial statement of its use of the funds received from these tax deductible contributions. Funding to D.A.R.E. Wisconsin, Ltd., is discontinued if the nonprofit organization dissolves or loses its tax-exempt status under federal law.

Current law also prohibits enumerating special group license plates by legislative action. Instead, members of special groups desiring a special group license plate must apply to DOT for designation. This bill creates an exception to this administrative process.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
