Some of these rules are also amended in the manner described below.

Assembly Rules 2 (2), 3 (2), and 4 (1) and (2): These rules are amended to clarify which absences are the "temporary inability to preside" and which absences are "when the speaker is separated by death, resignation, or removal from office," and establishes the succession when each type of absence occurs.

Assembly Rules 5 (1) (bm), 6 (1) (c), and 26 (6) (b) 4.: These rules transfer the duty to supervise the provision of calendars to the members from the sergeant at arms to the chief clerk. The duty to supervise the provision of other legislative documents to members remains with the sergeant at arms.

Assembly Rules 5 (3) and 6 (2): These rules are amended to clarify which absences are the "temporary inability to perform the duties of chief clerk or sergeant at arms" and which absences are "when the chief clerk or sergeant at arms is separated by death, resignation, or removal from office," and establishes the succession when each type of absence occurs.

Assembly Rule 6(1)(k): This rule is amended to direct the sergeant at arms to ensure that the Wisconsin flag is displayed in the room in which an assembly committee is meeting.

Assembly Rule 11 (4): This rule is amended to clarify that the committee on assembly organization and the joint legislative council may use paper ballots to vote, rather than requiring the members to vote in the presence of each other.

Assembly Rule 11 (7): This rule is amended to clarify that only in cases of temporary absences of the committee chairperson and vice chairperson do the other members succeed to the chair in the order in which named to the committee.

Assembly Rules 13(1)(c), 15(2) and (3), 33(4), 62(7), 73(3)(b), 93(6), and 95(90): These rules are amended to clarify what type of majority is required.

Assembly Rule 24 (3) (a): This rule is amended to required the assembly to comply with statutory provisions regarding survey committees and the joint committee on finance even if the senate did not.

Assembly Rule 25 (intro.), (1) and (3): This rule is amended to authorize the specified persons to be admitted to the assembly floor during session and one-quarter hour before and one-quarter hour after any session, instead of during session and one-half hour before and immediately after any session.

Assembly Rule 26 (6) (a) is amended and Assembly Rule 26 (6) (b) 4. is created to authorize only members to use devices such as cell phones and beepers in the parlor and lobbies.

Assembly Rule 29 (3): This rule is amended to provide that a calendar, except a calendar for a Saturday, Sunday, or state holiday specified in section 230.35 (4) (a) of the statutes, shall be provided to each member at least 12 hours before the calendar is to be acted upon during the last week of the last general-business floorperiod preceding the veto review session. The present requirement that a calendar be provided at least 18 hours before it is to be acted upon remains in effect at other times.

Assembly Rules 39 (3) and 53: Joint rules 44 (2) (a), 54 (1), (2), and (2m), and 79 (2) are created in the 2001 joint resolution changing the joint rules. The changes to the joint rules authorize the legislative reference bureau to enter into a written agreement with a chief clerk to have the chief clerk, when the house is in session, receive on the floor of the house copies of drafts of proposals and amendments transmitted electronically by the LRB, and place the proposals in jacket envelopes and attach jacket cover sheets (stripes) to amendment drafts. The amendments of these assembly rules conform the assembly rules to those joint rules.

Assembly Rule 39 (4) (c): This rule is amended to require the speaker to refer a properly jacketed proposal within 14 days, rather than 7 days, after the office of the chief clerk receives the proposal for introduction.

Assembly Rule 42 (1) (b): This rule is amended to permit the presiding officer to refer any bill, that requires referral to one or more joint survey committees, simultaneously to several or all of the joint survey committees and to an assembly committee.

Assembly Rule 42 (1) (c): This rule is amended to permit the presiding officer to simultaneously refer any bill, not just a budget bill, to joint survey committees and to the joint committee on finance.

Assembly Rule 42 (3) (c): This rule is amended to permit the speaker to withdraw any proposal from one committee and rerefer it to another committee if the committee chairperson consents not only within 5 working days after initial referral, but at any time before a vote by the committee is commenced on the proposal.

Assembly Rule 42 (1) (ad): This rule is created to provide that all referrals to committee that are required by statute must be so referred upon first reading.

Assembly Rule 42 (1) (am): This rule is created to permit the speaker to refer any bill that pertains only incidentally to a matter of concern to a joint survey committee directly to the committee appropriate to the major substance of the bill, and to direct the joint survey committee to prepare its report on the bill when the bill is in the other committee.

Assembly Rule 52 (4): This rule is created to prohibit the offering of an amendment to a report of a committee of conference.

Assembly Rule 80 (4): This rule is amended to prohibit the division of a report of a committee of conference.

Assembly Rule 95 (50m): This rule is created to define "offer," so as to distinguish it from introduction.

Assembly Rule 95 (57m): This rule is created to define "presiding officer," so as to distinguish the term from speaker and speaker pro tempore.

Assembly Rule 98: This rule is created to address fund-raising social events in Dane County during floorperiods and special and extraordinary sessions.
