

2005 ASSEMBLY BILL 495

June 14, 2005 - Introduced by Representatives UNDERHEIM, ALBERS and F. LASEE.
Referred to Committee on Family Law.

1 AN ACT to amend 757.69 (1) (p) (intro.) and 767.12 (1); and to create 767.12 (1m)
2 of the statutes; relating to: the right to a jury in divorce actions.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, with limited exceptions, all hearings and trials in actions affecting the family are before the judge. (There are exceptions for certain hearings, such as for establishing or revising a child support order, which may be before a circuit court commissioner, and for the determination of paternity in a paternity action, which may be before a jury.) This bill provides that a party in a divorce action may request a jury trial with respect to determining custody, physical placement, child or family support, or maintenance. A party may also request a jury trial for revising a custody, physical placement, child or family support, or maintenance order if the original order was entered in a divorce action. Under the bill, if a jury trial is requested, a circuit court commissioner may not hear the matter.
